Memorial Day to be observed in the Quad-City area

By DONNA KIMBRO and VALERIE EVENDEN of the Press-Record

Weekend memorial services in Granite City, Venice and neighboring communities will pay tribute to "those who rest in gallant ranks," it was announced this week.

A Parade of Flags is scheduled at 10:30 a.m. Monday, May 28, in Granite City, and a Memorial Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Monday by the Rev. Gary Perret, pastor of St. Joseph Catholic Church, at the impressive stone altar and cross near the main entrance to Calvary Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

VENICE-MADISON American Legion Post 307 will observe the commemorative holiday weekend with memorial services starting at 10 a.m. Sunday, May 27, at the Post Home, 740 Broadway, Venice.

Symbolic small white crosses decorated with flags grace the Post 307 lawn and live Flanders poppies, surrounding a replica of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, serve to remind all Quad-Cityans of those who helped to defend our country and preserve our freedom.

Guest speaker at the Sunday service in Venice will be Senior Vice Commander Glen Smith of American Legion District 22, it was announced by Kenneth Hinson, Post 307 adjutant and program coordinator. The public is invited to attend.

IN GRANITE CITY, a Parade of Flags and a Memorial Day program, sponsored by Quad-City Amvets Post 51 and Auxiliary, are slated Monday, May 28. The extensive program involves servicemen, veterans' organizations, Girl and Boy Scout troops and local dignitaries.

Madison Amvets Post 204 is planning its observance on the traditional Memorial Day, Wednesday, May 30, starting at 7 p.m. at the Madison Memorial Center, Seventh Street and Lee Avenue, according to Post 204 Commander Vasil Graville and Hank Lopez, program chairman. State Sen. Sam Vadalabene will give the address.

BETTY WILKINS, Americanism

chairman for Amvets Auxiliary 51, said those taking part in the Parade of Flags will assemble at 10 a.m. Monday in the First Assembly of God Church parking area, across the street from the main Post Office on Madison Avenue at 24th Street.

Escorted by police officers, the march will start at 10:30 a.m., proceeding south on Madison Avenue to Nedringhaus Avenue, then west to the City Hall for the formal observance.

THE MEMORIAL tribute will commence at 11 a.m. on the City Hall steps and lawn, with Mrs. Wilkins and Amvets 51 Commander Joseph White introducing distinguished guests and the leaders of veterans' and various scouting groups.

Each organization will place a wreath at the memorial plaque, situated on the lawn, and a 21-gun salute by the Air Force honor guard from Scott Air Force Base, Belleville, will follow.

"Patriot" will be heard as the flag is

Drivers are urged to use caution

By VALERIE EVENDEN of the Press-Record

A concentrated traffic safety drive by Illinois State Police agencies during the Memorial Day weekend, the closing of various public facilities and a highway safety break for travelers on Route 157 at Interstate 55-70 at Collinsville are among the plans announced for the upcoming three-day holiday.

The Granite City Press-Record offices will be closed Monday, May 28, publishing the newspaper Tuesday, May 29, and Thursday, May 31.

MANY AREA communities are planning Memorial weekend observances, including Granite City and in the Venice-Madison area. Details may be found in a related story.

The Granite City Post Office will operate a holiday schedule during the Memorial observance Monday, May 28.

Postmaster Jack D. Wilkins said regular residential and business deliveries will not be made and the usual Post Office lobby services will not be available, with the exception of Post Office Box service, which is accessible from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. that day.

DELIVERY OF certain expedited mail services will continue during the holiday weekend, however. These include Special Delivery and Express Mail. Mailers may call the Post office at 877-0700 for information about holiday schedules.

Mail pick-up from collection boxes also will be on holiday schedules, as posted in individual boxes or determined by calling the post office, Wilkins advised.

All Quad-City area banking institutions, including savings and loan associations, will be closed Saturday and Monday, it was announced.

THE GRANITE CITY Center of Belleville Area College will be closed Monday, with no registrations taken that day. The center at 4950

Maryville Road will reopen Tuesday, May 29.

Registration for summer classes at the center ends Wednesday, May 30, with the summer session beginning Monday, June 4. For more information or to register, students may call 931-0600.

All Secretary of State offices and facilities will be closed for Memorial Day, Secretary of State Jim Edgar announced.

DOWNSTATE Driver Services facilities, including the Granite City office, will be closed Saturday, May 28, and will resume business Tuesday, May 29.

The Lewis and Clark NEAR (National Emergency Aid Radio) Channel 9 Monitors will sponsor a Highway Safety Break over the Memorial Day weekend, starting at 4 p.m. Friday and continuing through 4 p.m. Monday, May 28.

Program aids teen parents

By GARY SCHNEIDER Press-Record Editor

Quad-Cityans who believe once a teenage girl is pregnant it is too late to help her, are missing some very important points, according to officials of Parents Plus, a support program for teenage parents, which is seeking volunteers to aid young women who became parents too soon.

Often, the biggest frustrations occur after the baby is born and those frustrations, if not dealt with, can result in child abuse, severe depression and other problems and, in many cases, put both the mother and the baby on the welfare rolls for life.

THIS IS Parents Too Soon Week in Illinois, a week where attention should focus on the problem of teenage pregnancies and what can be done when it is too late to avoid the pregnancy. A great deal is being done in the Quad-City area under the Parents Too Soon grant and through the generosity of local churches, businesses and individuals, according to Pat Miller, parent education coordinator for Parents Plus.

Among the week's activities is an open house today for the Parents Plus program in the Mental Health Services building at 2024 State St.

The open house, from 3:30 to 6 p.m. today, will serve to introduce staff members and volunteers to the public and to teenage mothers who

Schools seek fuel cost cut

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

Ways to reduce fuel costs were considered by the Granite City Board of Education as it toured school facilities early Tuesday evening.

Possible steps being studied are conversion of additional school boilers, installation of water heaters, elimination of the steam line that heats Coolidge Junior High School, and lowering of ceilings to limit the volume of air that must be heated during cold weather.

BOARD MEMBERS and administrators made a walking inspection of Granite City High School home economics, vocational shop and science areas and decided to visit several elementary schools in the near future.

Whether some school renovations—those that are primarily "cosmetic"—could be undertaken by a combination of craftsmen and students is to be explored.

As buildings age, a potential chain reaction of roof, ceiling and floor deterioration requires vigilance, those on the tour noted. Some past problems became more serious because of underfunding related to budget imbalances, comments indicated.

Construction of portions of the GCIS complex was completed in 1924, 1928, 1941, 1956, 1960, 1966 and 1971.

BOARD TOPICS at the special meeting included a sewer line break occurring at Coolidge this week, improvement of a wheelchair lift area near stairs connecting main-floor areas of GCIS, and future installation of an elevator so that handicapped persons could utilize the upper floor of GCIS.

The 90-minute meeting began in the office of GCIS Principal Gilbert V. Wamsley, with the tour following.

Illinois Life Safety Code funding could be used for numerous repairs and modernization projects, including installation of classroom smoke alarms, reports to the board have shown.

PENDING SAFETY WORK exceeds $3 million in the district, but the main hazards seen Tuesday were uneven floors in corridors and classrooms where tiles or linoleum have partly worn off.

Also viewed were old cabinets that are in use in laboratories and homemaking classrooms, and an old lab fan that has become extremely noisy.

A student locker replacement program is progressing, and the board viewed lockers that have been put into use at GCIS after being transferred from the Lake and Johnson grade schools.

Girl, 5, hit by van, dies

Brandy Michelle Oliver, 5, of 4901 Kirkpatrick Homes, a kindergarten pupil at Marshall Elementary School, was fatally injured when she was struck by a van at 3:55 p.m. Monday in the 2800 block of Nameoki Road.

The child initially was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center and then transferred to Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital, St. Louis, where she died at 6 p.m. Monday, May 21, 1984.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Sharon Oliver, 4901 Kirkpatrick Homes, and Bruce Oliver of Granite City. Additional survivors and funeral arrangements are listed in the obituary column in today's issue.

An inquest is pending at the St. Louis Medical Examiner's Office.

According to police reports, the small girl ran east across Nameoki Road into the path of a southbound Travelall van operated by Virgil L. Griffin, 30, of 3000 Sunbury Ave. Griffin, who was traveling in the inside lane of the highway, saw the child run across the road and tried to avoid striking her, but couldn't, he told officers. No tickets were issued.

Brandy was born Aug. 29, 1978, in Granite City. She attended Central Baptist Church in Pontoon Beach.

Issue 216 citations in 3 days

It's that time of year when Granite City motorists either display vehicle stickers on their windshields, or suffer the consequences of a traffic citation being issued with the resulting fine of $40.

Since midnight Sunday through 7 a.m. today, a total of 239 citations has been issued to drivers who have not purchased their city stickers. And, the drive is continuing.

STARTING May 16, the $5 pre-deadline fee of a sticker went up to $10 and, when added to the fine, the amount now costs a forgetful driver $50.

Roadblocks have been in evidence this week in various spots around town and the drive is continuing to catch procrastinating motorists, authorities said.

priorities for repairs and renovations throughout the district can be set. In the background, from left, are board member Alan Crider; Ronald Landman, director of buildings and grounds for the district; and Superintendent of Schools B.J. Davis.

Venice schools may limit use of buses

By RACHEL NEWSOME
for the Press-Record

The Venice School Board debated many long-standing issues and made several approvals at last week's meeting.

The number of requests by community organizations to use school buses has been a topic of major concern at prior board meetings. Maintaining the buses for transportation of children to and from school is the board's primary responsibility. The board is concerned that the over-usage is creating a great deal of unnecessary damage to the vehicles, thus more expenses for the district.

Many requests by organizations involve transportation to St. Louis

Cardinal baseball games. "It would be unfair to ourselves to stop usage now. This, too, is probably the only way that some of these kids can go to the ballpark," commented Wilbert Glaser, board president. The board has decided to either begin limiting the amount of times a bus can be used by one organization or set some types of rate and begin charging for usage. A final decision is to be made in the future. Despite the board's concern, a request by the Venice Park District to use two buses was granted.

As required by law, a survey must be conducted every 10 years concerning the asbestos problem in schools. Authorization was given by the board to Henry Gabriel, architect, to conduct a Life Safety resurvey in the Venice schools.

Because the board forces no development of a high school band, on recommendation from Robert Vickers, superintendent of schools, a decision was made to sell various band instruments and sheet music for the price of $2,300 to Metro-East Lutheran High School.

Approvals by the board included a request by Vickers to purchase two IBM selective typewriters, two computer disc drives, one TRS-80 Model 4 computer and library books with money received from a FY '85 Chapter II application.

Preparing for the scheduling of courses next fall, Peter Ponce, representing Venice-Lincoln Technical School obtained the board's approval to submit a proposal to Madison County J.P.T.A. requesting the addition of nurse's aid courses to the schools curriculum.

The board's next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 6, in the superintendent's office.

ARKANSAN ARRESTED HERE

Larry C. White, 46, Trumann, Ark., was arrested by Granite City police on Route 162 last week for driving with a revoked license and transporting open beer. He was freed on $102 bail.

Further harassment of area?

As if government was not singling us out enough for punishment in the form of auto emissions testing, a recent twist has developed which could single us out even more.

Initially, the federal government gave the state a month to implement annual auto emissions tests for all vehicles in Madison and St. Clair counties and the Chicago metropolitan area. Now, if an amendment by Sen. Frank Watson (R-Greenville) is accepted, only parts of those counties would be forced to undergo the costly and inconvenient testing, including the Quad-City area.

Watson wants the state Senate to exempt zip code areas that supposedly do not have heavy industry and, therefore, do not create air pollution problems. His amendment would exempt Collinsville, Caseyville, Maryville, Troy, Edwardsville and several other communities.

Granite City, Madison, Venice, Duplo, Hartford, Alton, Sauget, Cahokia and others with factories and refineries would be subject to emissions testing. If Watson's measure passes, it is further evidence that we in the Quad-City area are being singled out for punishment because we live in an industrial city — a city that supplies employment for hundreds of Collinsville, Alton, Edwardsville and other areas.

It is bad enough that a few counties are to be singled out for emissions testing, but to further limit that to only those of us "stupid enough," or unfortunate enough, to live in an industrial city, is twisting the knife.

The state should reject Watson's proposal. Everyone in the state should be subjected to this hardship if anyone is. After living under the burden of vehicle testing in other states, we don't think anyone in Illinois should be subjected to it.

We have said before, thus far without response, that it is time our U.S. senators and Rep. Melvin Price step in to try and stop this government harassment of a few counties and let the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency know that it has overstepped its bounds in forcing residents of a few areas to dig deeply into their pockets and waste their time meeting federal mandates that will do little to clean up the air in Granite City.

That just is not what government "of the people and by the people" is supposed to be.

Clarifying a misunderstanding

In an effort to set the record straight, we thought it would be a good idea to clarify a statement made in an editorial Monday which has caused concern among some Granite City teachers.

In an editorial expressing concern over layoffs in the health care field based upon seniority rather than performance ratings, we compared the situation to the one the schools went through last year, retaining teachers on the basis of seniority.

We noted that some good teachers were laid off and said the children are suffering for that. With good reason, some teachers took that statement to mean that we feel only the "dregs" were left. Far from it.

We respect the teachers today more than ever before. They are working with bigger classes and still managing to give the students a good education. Many fine teachers escaped last year's cut. Our point was simply that some good teachers did get away and the students' school experiences could be that much richer had they been retained. Most students are definitely not suffering. Indeed, their education stacks up with the best schools in the state.

Sometimes in a brief editorial it is difficult to fully expand upon all points raised. However, our job is to communicate. When we fail to do that, we have let our readers and our profession down.

It is healthy that readers bring such disagreements to our attention so the record can be set straight.

Unemployment to be updated

It's money well spent.

The Illinois Bureau of Employment Security has been notified by Labor Secretary Ray Donovan that the bureau will receive $2.24 million for increased computerization to streamline and improve operations of the bureau statewide.

We have heard horror tales of the unemployed waiting many hours in line to sign up for unemployment and to keep their benefits coming. This should not happen.

Workers who have paid into the unemployment insurance fund through all of their careers deserve their benefits. They do not deserve to be forced to stand in long lines as if they were beggars and then wait weeks to receive their checks.

We sincerely hope that automation of the Bureau of Employment Security will speed the process of applying for unemployment benefits.

We also hope that the bureau's projected savings will pay for the system. The bureau says automation can help it reduce its borrowing from the federal government by speeding up the collection of unemployment insurance taxes from employers, can reduce overpayments in benefits and help collect promptly from those who have been overpaid.

If the system can, indeed, pay for itself, it is something that should have been done long ago.

Wolf calls for lifting of ceiling on coal bonds

Legislation supported by Representative Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) to raise the bonding ceiling for the Coal Technology Development Fund was approved this week by the Illinois House.

"The best way to help the Illinois Coal Industry is to underwrite research into methods of burning high sulfur Illinois coal safely," Wolf said. "With this legislation, we will have more money available to make grants for innovations in coal technology."

House Bill 2554 re-establishes the original $20 million cap on the Coal Technology Development Fund bonds that was lowered last year by Governor Thompson to only $5 million.

"Although Governor Thompson has publicly proclaimed his support for coal technology development, he used his veto pen to arbitrarily lower the bond cap to only $5 million," Wolf said.

"Hopefully, this year we can convince him to accept this higher ceiling," Wolf noted. This legislation is needed to speed up the process of Congress that could curtail the use of high sulfur Illinois coal as a means to eliminate acid rain.

"I don't believe that Illinois coal is the cause of acid rain, yet, nevertheless, it is vital that we take steps to improve the methods of burning Illinois coal more cleanly so that the Illinois coal industry is not legislated out of business by the U.S. Congress," Wolf said.

City officials and other employees of the city, excluding street department workers, received their first payday in six weeks Tuesday. The street department personnel have been paid right along, but there had not been enough money in the general fund to pay the other employees. The payroll made Tuesday was for the first half of May in the new fiscal year. It amounted to $2,158.70 and the money was obtained from liquor licenses sold this year. Salaries for the month of April, except for street department men, who are paid out of a special fund, are still in arrears.

Availability of $300,000 in state funds for engineering and architectural studies of the proposed new Southern Illinois University campus site near Edwardsville was announced yesterday at Springfield by Gov. William G. Straton during a conference with local area state legislators and 10 members of the Southwestern Illinois Council for Higher Education. However, the governor told the group it probably would be some years before the state can afford to set up funds for construction of buildings on the new campus.

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency has approved a $3,400,000 grant for construction of Quad-City interceptor lines, the beginning of the proposed four-township sanitary sewer program, those attending Gov. Daniel Walker's accountability session here last night were told. The governor appeared in the cafeteria of Granite City High School North before an audience of about 300 persons for his 28th such session since he became governor.

Is against banning 'cop killer' bullets

To the Editor:

I am writing in answer to the letter sent in by a Barbara Lautman. The letter speaks of a "cop killer" bullet designed to penetrate the body armor worn by police officers.

This notion is entirely ridiculous. No ammunition manufacturer is going to make a bullet on the request of the criminal element, to make a bullet that will make it easier to kill cops.

This bullet was manufactured originally at the request of military and police organizations in order to stop enemy soldiers wearing body armor or to penetrate auto bodies in the event of a fleeing felon.

If Ms. Lautman will check her facts, there has never been a police officer killed with a "copkiller bullet." Also, this bullet was literally unknown to the general public until the anti-gun fanatics publicized it in national media stories, thus informing would-be criminals of the bullet's potential.

There are already laws having mandatory punishment for the use of firearms in a crime, therefore having the same type of law to control the bullets is redundant.

The whole point of Ms. Lautman's letter is that if Handgun Control, Inc., can't get the guns out of the hands of law-abiding Americans, then they will try to outlaw this and eventually all other types of ammunition.

To do as Ms. Lautman suggests would merely be another step closer to taking away one of the Constitutional rights we American citizens have.

Simon, Percy differ on Nicaragua policy

To the Editor:

Central America is an illustration of the United States acting with good intent, but shooting ourselves in the foot.

Too much, too great an extent, we are acting without an understanding of history or attitudes there, and in a way that encourages Communism rather than retards it.

In the future I will deal with the situation in El Salvador, Honduras and Costa Rica, but let me spend a few minutes talking about Nicaragua, where our policies are the worst.

In charge of Nicaragua are the Sandinistas — named for a Nicaraguan hero who fought the U.S. Marines half a century ago. A few on the left in the U.S. try to portray the Sandinistas as virtual Boy Scouts. They are not.

While they have done some things in the fields of education and health for their people, they have also suppressed freedom, imprisoned people at a whim, acted boorishly when Pope visited Managua, and in general operated the way we expect dictators to act, no matter what their political stripe.

But does that give us the right to "secretly" try to overthrow that government? Do we have any business overthrowing governments anywhere that we don't like?

If we decide that we can use violence to topple a government, will that government not feel it is morally acceptable to also use violence for terrorism against us?

One of the lessons of history is that violence invites violence. And because of past involvements there that were not all good, the United States is viewed in most of Latin America as an exploiter and a bully. For many decades that was an accurate description. While today that is largely untrue, sometimes our actions reinforce those old images.

Many observers — "most" probably would be an accurate term — believe that what the U.S. has done with "covert" activities in Nicaragua and mining the harbors there have played into the hands of the Sandinistas (and the Soviets), making it less likely that the Sandinistas will modify their policies, making it less likely that any improvement will come in government there.

Mining the harbors clearly violated international law. To my knowledge, literally no nation has defended this action of the U.S.

We have damaged ships of friendly countries (the Netherlands, Panama and Japan) and of a potential foe (the Soviet Union) and have frightened our allies in the process. Nowhere do I see it mentioned that we got into World War I with Germany because she violated international shipping laws.

The military suggestions of the Kissinger Report on Central America received media attention a general acceptance of the way we expect dictators to act, no matter what their political stripe.

For instance, it recommended that we offer many more college scholarships; the Soviets and Cuba together offer about 7,500 in Central America — part of our own hemisphere — while we offer 391.

It recommended that we field a Literacy Corps made up of U.S. volunteers to help people in Central America learn how to read and write.

If instead of trying to overthrow the Nicaraguan government we offered these two things to Nicaragua, would it make a difference? It would be at least as effective as our present expensive efforts, which hurt our cause and add to the bloodshed.

Second, that approach attacks Marxism at its roots. The appeal of Marxism is not what it stands for, but what it is against. We would show that we are opposed to poverty and ignorance — and that we are the friends of the people of that region.

They now view us as placing every action in every country into an East-West struggle.

Former Sen. William Fulbright used the chairmanship of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to speak out for common sense and to put pressure on an administration of his party to lessen U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

On Central America, the present chairman of that committee is virtually silent.

If I am elected U.S. senator, I will stand for restraint and common sense in Central America. We should use military might if it becomes necessary, but not until then and not when it hurts us.

SAYS SASKY PROMISED ANNOUNCEMENT ON PLANS

To the Editor:
On the front page of the April 19, 1984, Press-Record, the Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk was quoted as saying he would make a statement "within the next 30 days" regarding his retirement.

More than 30 days have passed and I have seen no statement from the mayor regarding his retirement. If the mayor is just trying to get the people to feel sorry for him, it isn't going to work.

SAM CHOMKO

Editor's Note: Mayor Sasyk said this week that the time to make an announcement "just hasn't come about as yet." It will be announced "in the very near future," he added.

Lewis and Clark CB Club, said the NEAR Team break headquarters will be located between the Chief's Quik Shop Texaco Service Station and Jerry's 66 Service Station, 620 Ramada Drive, Collinsville, on Highway 157 at Interstate 55-70.

FREE REFRESHMENTS will be offered travelers during the break which has the support of Illinois State Police District 11, Illinois Department of Transportation and local police departments, Downing said.

Many traffic fatalities are attributed to fatigue, sleepiness and highway hypnosis, the club officer said.

By offering free refreshments to the traveler, drivers will be encouraged to take a break, have a cup of coffee and relax before resuming their trip feeling refreshed, he explained.

ILLINOIS STATE Police Superintendent John A. Nargelenas today announced the Memorial Day weekend period will once again signal a Traffic Safety Drive by state and highway police agencies in a nationwide Concentrated Accident Reduction Effort (Operation CARE).

The program, designed to reduce accidents and fatalities during Memorial Day, Fourth of July and Labor Day holidays, was initiated in 1977 by Michigan and Indiana and has expanded to include the 48 contiguous states.

"Illinois will join the other states in the Great American Buckle Up Campaign to encourage the motorist public to utilize safety belts when riding in a motor vehicle," Nargelenas said.

NATIONAL HIGHWAY Traffic Safety Administration studies indicate that 12,000 to 16,000 lives could be saved annually if automobile occupants used their safety belts.

Captain Bobby L. Henry Sr., commander of ISP District 11 at Collinsville, said all available personnel including officers and specialists will be out on patrol this weekend. The patrol will also be conducting stationary driver's license checks on major highways throughout the district.

Through strict enforcement of the 55 mph speed limit, the Child Restraint Law and detection of intoxicated drivers, the Illinois State Police hope to hold fatalities to a minimum, Henry said.

ILLINOIS is the only state that has shown a significant reduction in traffic fatalities for six consecutive years, ISP authorities noted.

The Bi-State Development Agency, operator of the public transportation system in the St. Louis metropolitan area, will operate bus service on Memorial Day, May 28, according to its regular Sunday schedule.

Bi-State's general offices, repair facilities and Transit Information Center will be closed that day in observance of the holiday. Normal operations will resume Tuesday, May 29.

For route and schedule information, interested persons may call Bi-State Transit Information weekdays from 6:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. at 875-4144.

Fuel cost a discussion brought out. The steam link will no longer be used if a new furnace is installed at Coolidge.

ADMINISTRATORS have estimated that if about $450,000 is spent on boiler and water heater programs at GCHS, Coolidge, the high school cafeteria building and the high school gym, the cost would be offset by subsequent economies within three years.

Part of the savings would involve boiler manning and related staff size decisions, and part would result from smaller utility bills.

At present, large GCHS boilers have to be fired up every school day (to provide hot water) instead of being operated just during the heating season.

No expenditures of the scope of the $450,000 proposal have been authorized by the board as yet, and more detailed cost impact projections are to be developed for the June 3 board session.

FUNDING PROPOSALS also will be considered June 3. Diverse ideas and methods are to be outlined at the meeting by two financial experts.

Ways of arranging payment for both school refurbishing and debt reduction await board consideration, some involving voter approval and others hinging on board action alone.

Those participating in the tour included Pres. David Partney, Treas. Kelly Hogan, Board Members Dewey Mellon, Alan Crider, and Monroe Worthen, Supt. B.J. Davis, Walmesley, Landman and Harold F. Gebhardt, GCHS science department head.

News of Quad-City area servicemen serving in the various branches of the U.S. military included.

RONALD HOOVER FAMILY

Ronald and Margaret Hoover and their daughters, Renee and Aimee, will be moving in June to Fairbanks, Alaska.

Senior Master Sergeant Hoover, a native of Granite City, is a veteran of more than 23 years of active military service with the United States Air Force.

He enlisted in the Air Force March 18, 1961, and after attending technical school was sent on his first assignment to Japan, where he spent 2½ years. Upon reassignment to Texas, Sgt. Hoover met his wife, the former Margaret Ann Porter of Gorman, Tex. Since their marriage and the birth of their two daughters, the family has traveled to many interesting locales, including Alaska, Japan, Okinawa and Taiwan.

Sgt. Hoover also has been stationed in Delaware, Mississippi, Montana and Idaho.

The serviceman presently is assigned to Mountain Home Air Force Base in Idaho, where the couple's eldest daughter, Renee, will graduate from high school this month.

The family then plans to visit Mrs. Hoover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hood in Texas, and Mrs. Frank Hoover of Granite City, prior to making the 6,000 mile trip to Alaska.

Sgt. Hoover expects to remain in Alaska, four years and then plans to return to the continental United States and retire from the Air Force, his family here advised.

He is a graduate of Granite City High School and a member of First Baptist Church here. He is also a former member of the DeMolay chapter in Granite City. Sgt. Hoover is the brother of Mrs. John (Marlene) Painter, Mrs. Randy (Karen) Graham and Richard Hoover, all of Granite City, and Roger Hoover of Collinsville. Many other family members also reside locally.

PATRICK FLEENOR

Personnelman First Class Patrick J. Fleenor, U.S. Navy, recently returned from the Lebanon area on board the USS Manitowoc, which was among the vessels assisting in the evacuation of the U.S. Marines from Beirut.

The serviceman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John (Mildred) Fleenor, 1104 Reynolds St. S.E., Madison, with whom he visited this month.

He is a 1974 graduate of Granite City High School North and has been in the U.S. Navy for nine years.

Fleenor, 27, is married to the former Barbara Shrum of Granite City. The couple has two sons, Patrick Jr., 5, and Christopher, 4.

Prior to returning to its homeport, the Manitowoc had remained at sea since last October. During its tour of duty off the coast of Lebanon, the crew was visited by Bob Hope and his entourage of entertainers, the serviceman's mother advised.

The vessel is now entering dry dock for about six months at the Charleston (S.C.) Navy Yard. The Fleenor family recently participated in Norfolk, Va., during this period.

BOBBY PATTON JR.

Marine Lance Corporal Bobby G. Patton Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby G. Patton Sr., 4213 Marigold Drive, recently participated in "Teamwork '84," a NATO exercise.

He is a member of Marine Fighter Attack Squadron 122, Marine Aircraft Group 31, Second Marine Aircraft Wing, at the Marine Corps Air Station at Beaufort, S.C.

The exercise was designed to test the ability of NATO forces to reinforce and resupply Northern Europe under winter conditions. It took place in the North Sea, Norwegian Sea and North Atlantic.

A combined amphibious assault was conducted by U.S. Marines, British Royal Marines and Dutch Royal Marines in support of Norwegian Forces operating in the Arctic climate of Northern Norway.

More than 150 ships and 300 aircraft from NATO countries, including more than 30 U.S. Navy ships were involved in the exercise.

Other countries taking part were Great Britain, The Netherlands, West Germany, Belgium, Canada, Denmark and Norway. Although not a military member of NATO, France also participated in "Teamwork '84," authorities noted.

CHARLES CAUSEY

Specialist Four Charles W. Causey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rosemary Causey, 611 Fleming St., Mitchell, has been enlisted in the U.S. Army at Fort Lewis, Wash., after more than six years military service.

His wife, Brenda, is the daughter of Robert Kness of Blaine, Wash.

BOBBY LEE SCARSDALE

HT2 Bobby Lee Scarsdale has returned to Sardinia, Italy, where he is stationed with the U.S. Navy on board the USS Orion, a submarine tender-ship.

The serviceman spent a 30-day leave here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scarsdale, 2408 Nameoki Road, and also visited other friends and relatives.

While home, Scarsdale and his parents spent two weeks in Pensacola, Fla., where a family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Seley, a son-in-law and daughter of the Frank Scarsdales and sister of Bobby Lee.

Joining the local visitors there were another son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scarsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne (Sue) Ball and children, Joey, Garrick and Mandy, of Richmond, Va., and the serviceman's two brothers, Dennis Scarsdale and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scarsdale and Mandy, all of Houston, Tex.

HT2 Scarsdale, an eight-year veteran of Navy service, recently re-enlisted for an additional three years.

He has been stationed in Italy for the past five years and last October was recognized as the crew member with the longest amount of time served on board the Orion, a total of four years and 11 months.

HT2 Scarsdale, 27, graduated in 1973 from Granite City High School South. His recent trip home was only the second visit to the United States in more than five years.

JEFF IMBODEN

Airman First Class Jeff G. Imboden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. (Joann) Imboden, 2114 Hamilton Drive, has participated in Global Shield '84, an exercise involving U.S. Air Force, Air Force Reserve, Air National Guard, Navy and Marine Corps units, and elements of the Canadian forces.

Coordinated by the Air Force Strategic Air Command (SAC), the exercise was designed to enhance the readiness and the ability of SAC to carry out orders should deterrence fail.

Imboden is a missile facilities specialist with the 38th Missile Maintenance Squadron at Little Rock Air Force Base in Arkansas.

He is a 1981 graduate of Granite City High School North.

DANIEL BROWNING

He is a 1979 graduate of Granite City High School.

Squadron 122 (VAW 122), embarked aboard the aircraft carrier USS Independence.

During the deployment, the squadron saw combat action and took part in a major NATO exercise.

VAW 122 began the mission by participating in "Operation Urgent Fury" in Grenada. The squadron flew around the clock for three weeks, providing surface surveillance, fighter control and coordination with forward air controllers for the strike aircraft.

After leaving Grenada, the squadron travelled to the Mediterranean, where it took up station off the coast of Beirut, Lebanon.

While there, VAW 122 was involved in every aspect of battle group operations, including the airborne coordination of the Dec. 4 strike on Syrian positions in the mountains east of Beirut.

Leaving the Mediterranean, VAW 122 went into the North Atlantic for NATO exercise "Teamwork '84," the largest NATO exercise ever conducted. The carrier squadron provided air cover for amphibious operations during the exercise, authorities said.

Ports visited during the deployment were Haifa, Israel; Istanbul, Turkey; Naples, Italy; and Portsmouth, England.

'Miracle baby' celebrates first birthday

For Brian Michael Carr, May 12 was more than just a first birthday. It was a victory over 12 months of health problems.

Brian, the son of Robert and Laura Carr of 258 Sunny Shore Mobile Home Park, Chouteau Township, arrived three months premature. He was born with collapsed lungs, bruised bones and internal bleeding caused by an open heart valve.

Although Brian was delivered at St. Elizabeth's Medical Center, he was transported immediately to Cardinal Glennon Hospital. "They (the doctors) told me there was no way that he was going to make it," said Mrs. Carr. "He had 16 blood transfusions in the first 15 hours after he was born."

When Brian made it through the first day, Mrs. Carr said the doctors told her that if he would make it, he would suffer extensive brain damage and have poor eyesight.

"One of the nurses at Cardinal Glennon said there has been only one other baby in the past ten years, as sick as Brian, who has lived," said Mrs. Carr. "Brian only weighed 2 pounds at birth."

She said the cure of Brian's heart problem was a turning point in his recovery. "They told me that if they had to operate on Brian (to surgically close the opening), he would die on the operating table — he was just so weak. So I signed a paper that gave them permission to try an experimental arthritis medicine, and it closed the opening."

She also said that Brian had two operations for an abscessed rectum while in the hospital.

Brian was released from the hospital seven weeks and two days after his birth, about four months earlier than expected, and has been progressing ever since. Today he is a healthy boy of 21 pounds, 2 ounces.

"We never entered him in a St.

BRIAN CARR

Louis area beauty contest last month," said Mrs. Carr. "I'm really proud of him."

Mrs. Carr said a recent visit to his doctor had resulted in a much better prognosis for Brian. "Doctor (Shaque) Ahmad said that he is almost caught up with the normal development of a 12 month old baby," she said. "He's going to be perfectly normal. We call him our miracle baby."

"The doctors told me that he needed a lot of love, if he was going to make it — it looks like love was the best medicine."

Brian celebrated his first birthday at Wilson Park with about 50 relatives and friends. "It's been a hard first year, but Brian's a fighter," his mother said.

GCHS earns accreditation again

Gilbert Walmsley, principal of Granite City High School, has announced that the school's North Central Association accreditation has been extended following the review and approval of its annual report at the association's annual meeting. Dr. John S. Kemp, NCA state director at the University of Illinois, congratulated Granite City High School on its continued accreditation. He added, "The accreditation should be a matter of pride and satisfaction to the school and the community, for it provides assurance that the school meets those minimal, yet rigorous, preconditions for effective education."

established by the association. Through this voluntary membership in the NCA, the school and the people in the district have committed themselves to the pursuit of quality in education. The North Central Association, which was founded in 1895, is the largest of the country's regional accrediting agencies. It is a voluntary organization of more than 3,300 school and colleges and universities in 19 states, plus the Department of Defense Department schools throughout the world. A total of 631 schools are accredited in Illinois.

"Accreditation by the North Central Association ensures that the school is meeting the minimal conditions for effectiveness. By setting standards for basic operations of the school and by requiring a comprehensive evaluation once every seven years, the NCA stimulates the school towards continuous improvement. This is accountability in action," Dr. Kemp said.

Senior companions sought

Belleville Area College's Program for older persons offers a Senior Companion Program for low-income persons 60 years of age and older which serve the Quad City area. Persons who qualify on the age and income basis are being asked to volunteer 20 hours per week for a stipend rate of $2.00 per hour, and are reimbursed for out-of-pocket expense for travel and meals while volunteering for the program. The income guidelines are as follows: 1 person, $6,075; 2 persons, $8,175; 3 persons, $10,275; 4 persons, $12,375; 5 persons, $14,475; and 6 persons, $16,575. This includes total household income. After qualifying and receiving appropriate training, the senior companion is placed in a residence to give companionship to an older person who needs some support or supervision in order to be able to remain in the mainstream of life. Senior companions never administer medicine and are not permitted to do any heavy cleaning. Their assignments include writing letters, reading, helping to prepare light meals, encouraging an interest in good hygiene, helping with a prescribed physical therapy program, assisting in home management, developing social contacts and shopping. It is an important program to the clients who are given the companion. The monetary gain received by the senior companion does not affect their Public Aid, Social Security, Medicaid, Food Stamps or other benefits, and does not have to be filed as income on their income tax. In addition to the financial assistance, they are given the opportunity to be of service to those who are less fortunate, thus giving the senior companion a new sense of importance and meaningfulness in their lives. Applications are presently being taken, and men are also encouraged to apply. Persons interested in the program may contact Myrna Kesterson, Madison County Field Coordinator, at 876-3223.

Microwaves, heaters recalled

Certain portable electric space heaters and a specific microwave ovens represent fire hazards, according to Harold L. Schmelski, Illinois state fire marshal.

Approximately 102,000 Patton and Sears brand portable electric space heaters and more than 57,000 Astro Chef, Classic and La Chef brand microwave ovens sold nationwide are dangerous," the fire marshal said.

He recommended that concerned owners contact the U.S. Consumer Products Safety Commission (CPSC), which initiated the warning, for advice and instructions. The CPSC toll-free number is 1-800-633-CPSC; the teletypewriter number for the hearing impaired is 1-800-6270.

The portable heaters were sold between August, 1983, and March, 1984, in large chain stores and in small retail outlets. The units sold for under $30. The identified units, with a defect in the slide-type control, are being recalled and will be replaced at no cost. They will be upgraded at no cost to the consumer, including transportation charges.

The manufacturer of the suspected microwave ovens is no longer in business. Owners of the more than 57,000 units sold for $300 each in the last three years should contact CPSC. The ovens tend to self-start when unattended.

CPSC reports six fire incidents involving the heaters under investigation. The federal agency also has had 48 complaints regarding the microwave ovens. Consumers may identify the recalled portable heater units by the bottom labels, looking for either Patton Model HF-10 or Sears Model 281-7286 and the words "Made in Hong Kong."

"Although one of the portable heater incidents was the death of an 18-month-old baby and there are no reports of serious injury or fire from the microwave ovens," Schmelski said, "the appliances should be unplugged and not used until their safety has been assured."

Local teachers, business executives joining forces

The beginning of a successful alliance between Granite City educators and area business executives was observed last week at a local restaurant.

The recognition event marked the conclusion of the pilot Project Business program in Granite City. A commitment is being made to continue with the program next year.

Project Business, a division of Junior Achievement, is an economic education program for junior high students. The program is called a unique blending of business and education.

Social studies teachers allow executives to present business and economics to their students one class period each week for an abbreviated semester.

The executive and teacher work closely to ensure student understanding of economic concepts. Students gain first-hand knowledge of the intricacies of business.

The program is supported entirely by the business community and offered at no cost to the schools.

During the current semester, ten Project Business classes were conducted in Granite City.

Coolidge Junior High, Grigsby Junior High, St. Margaret Mary, Sacred Heart-St. Joseph and St. Elizabeth's School participated in the pilot semester. Nearly 275 students were involved.

James Dumont, administrative assistant, secondary education, for the Granite City school system, in-discussed there could be at least 13 Project Business classes in Granite City in the next school year, and possibly more.

"It's a great opportunity for business executives to see the positive happenings in our schools," Dumont said.

Mary Francis Barick, a teacher at St. Margaret Mary, joked that she learned as much as her students from the Granite City Steel executives who taught Project Business to her eighth grade class.

Randy Vollmar, assistant vice-president, First Granite City National Bank, who taught a class at Grigsby, said, "I've gained a real appreciation for the role of our teachers."

James Eisenbeis, vice president for administration at Granite City Steel, a division of National Steel, is a member of the Junior Achievement board of directors. He suggested starting Project Business in Granite City last year.

With the help and support of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and Granite City Board of Education, the program was launched in the spring.

RCA RECORDER TAKEN

Rochelle Montgomery of 63 Greiner Homes, Madison, told police last week that someone kicked in the panel of her rear door and took a video cassette recorder.

MELHS graduation is Friday night

Four Quad-City area residents were among 21 students who will graduate Friday evening from Metro-East Lutheran High School in Edwardsville. Graduation ceremonies will begin at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the school's gymnasium.

Granite Cityans graduating are Susan Glasgow, Maria Quante and Theresa Schuette. Also graduating is Terry Daniels of Venice.

The school recognized award winners for the year at an awards banquet May 14. Among them are Susan Walton, a junior from Granite City, for art excellence and Terry Daniels for service on the Student Council.

HARTFORD ISSUES DUI

Darwin R. Freeman Sr., 43, of 612 Jefferson St., Venice, was arrested last week in Hartford and charged with driving under the influence of alcohol (DUI) and speeding. He was released on his own recognizance.

Meaning of the UW symbol

"You've seen this symbol around — at health care agencies, service facilities, neighborhood centers and, of course, on all United Way posters and publications. But did you know the symbol's very simple, yet universal message?" asks Janet Quanton, executive director of the Tri-Cities Area United Way.

At the bottom is a helping hand. The hand symbolizes the services and programs supported by the United Way that in turn support the people in our community.

The image in the center, based on the universal symbol of mankind, is cradled by the helping hand. It shows that all people are supported and uplifted by United Way efforts.

And a rainbow springs from the helping hand, representing the hope of a better life possible through the United Way, she explained.

"In these simple figures is the sum total of the United Way philosophy — to promote volunteerism and to support voluntary organizations in their efforts to provide a better life for us all," she added.

STEALS PIGGY BANKS

A thief kicked in a rear door and also knocked a panel on a locked bedroom door at the home of Kenneth Cann, 1678 Second St., Madison, last week and stole two piggy banks containing about $11.

Teen parents

involvement to only after a young mother has made her decision to keep the baby. At that time, she can turn to Parents Plus or any of the Parents Too Soon programs for help and support.

THE PROGRAMS are earmarked for low income young families, but others also can be served if they need help coping with the situation.

Parents Plus is divided into four areas: Home Visitors, Information & Support, Child Care and Tutoring. Home care includes regular visits to the home by trained volunteers who help the mother-to-be prepare the home for the baby, teaches skills needed to raise a happy, healthy child, teaches "bonding" methods to keep the mother and baby close and friendly and answers questions new mothers may have.

INFORMATION & Support services concentrate on the weekly groups, letting young moms share their frustration, learning from each other about raising the children and sharing information important to young mothers. The program also tries to provide information to the young mothers to keep them from having a second baby when they cannot afford the first. Sixty percent of the girls who have a baby before the age of 18, statistics show.

Child Care is an important part of the Parents Plus concept. It allows the young mother to continue her education or to go to work. Children requiring "extra attention" can find it through the program and the babysitting is important so the young mother can have some time for herself.

The program is seeking open slots in day care centers and will pay for the children's care there. There is a need for certified daycare slots for the 0 to 2-year-olds, since few are licenses for children that young. Parents Plus will pay under contract for the daycare service. Also, developmental day care slots are sought for children needing special treatment and high stimulus," Mrs. Miller said.

THE FOURTH ingredient the program utilizes to try and provide a rounded way for young mothers to improve their lives is tutoring for those who need to improve their reading skills and prepare to return to school.

"We are trying to reduce the mother's dependence on welfare five years from now," Mrs. Miller said. She noted that about 90 percent of the current welfare caseload begins with teenage mothers who then stay on welfare. Also, the program is growing up to become welfare mothers and fathers. It is a preventative thing," she added.

The Parents Plus program provides no counseling, but puts the young mothers in touch with groups which specialize in professional counseling. "We are building an extensive referral network in the community," she notes.

IN ADDITION to referring young mothers to independent programs where they can get help, the program is seeking referrals from the community of young moms who could benefit from the Parents Plus program. Currently, schools and other groups refer several young mothers a day to the program, but there are few sources which refer older teens, out of school, to the program.

Parents Plus began in Madison and St. Clair counties with the release of grant funds Dec. 6, 1983. Staff hiring started in January and actual service began the third week in March. In the Quad-City area, approximately 35 teens have been served. In both counties, 110 to 125 women have been helped by the program.

Young mothers who are interested in the program or persons who would like to refer a young mother to the program may contact Mrs. Miller at Parents Plus, 877-4420.

Wolf supports an end to pickup truck inspections

Pickup trucks would be exempt from state mandated safety inspections under legislation backed by State Representative Sam Wolf (D-Granite City).

Under House Bill 2430, pickups with a gross (loaded) weight of 8,000 pounds or less would be exempt from the semi-annual inspections, unless they are used commercially. Pick-ups used by carpenters, plumbers and other tradesmen, the owner is the principal driver of the vehicle.

"In rural areas, most pickups are used as a second family vehicle and have limited commercial use," Wolf noted. "These inspections do little to improve traffic safety and represent an unnecessary government intrusion.

Furthermore, the legislation exempts pickups with campers if they are registered as recreational vehicles.

"The twice a year inspection program has caused enough burden, inconvenience and unnecessary expense for pick-up owners," Wolf explained.

Wolf noted that of the fee amount charged, only $1 goes to the state and that is just to pay the cost of the sticker. "This program should be eliminated as a cost savings to pickup owners," Wolf added.

Elks name teenagers of the month for May

Carrie Lynn Ross and James Fletcher, both seniors at Granite City High School, have been selected teenagers of the month for May by Granite City Elks Lodge 1063.

The teenagers of the month program is sponsored by the local Elks lodge in an effort to bring recognition to outstanding teenagers in the community. They are selected on the basis of citizenship, leadership and scholarship.

Miss Ross, 17, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Ross, 2118 State St. has been active in band and the Band Lettermen's Club, in addition to being the Wrestlereite president and queen at the school.

She also is a candy-striper at St. Elizabeth Medical Center and works in her church's nursery. Miss Ross served on the Fashion Trend Board for Hudson's Jewelry and participated in this year's spring musical, "Bye, Bye Birdie," at GC118.

She has majored in home economics and social studies and her hobbies include cooking, sewing, softball, collecting Avon bottles and decorating doll houses.

Fletcher, 18, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Fletcher, 4019 Braden Ave. He is planning to study radiologic technology during a two-year program at the Mallinckrodt

Carrie Moss James Fletcher

Institute of Radiology beginning in July. The institute is affiliated with Washington University.

He is co-editor-in-chief of the school's newspaper, "Granite High World," and was sports editor of the paper during his junior year. He also has been active in Quill and Scroll and is an honor roll student.

Fletcher's hobbies are soccer, basketball and softball.

These two students are the last to be honored by the Granite City Elks Lodge this school year. The teenagers of the year will be announced at a special dinner in June. The individual teenagers of the month selected during the 1983-84 school year will be honored at this event.

Contracts awarded on I-255 construction

Ten contracts amounting to $27 million have been awarded for additional construction on new Interstate 255, officials announced at a press conference at the Collinsville Hilton, Monday.

U.S. Sen. Alan Dixon, present at the press conference, credited the Illinois Congressional delegation with obtaining federal discretionary funds that have helped move up the completion date for the 27-mile I-255 project.

A TOTAL OF $53 million in federal discretionary funds were awarded to Illinois several weeks ago, said Fred Bartelsmeyer, assistant district engineer for the Illinois Department of Transportation.

"This money has accelerated completion of I-255 by more than a year," Bartelsmeyer said. The entire project, expected to cost a total of $530 million, should be open in late 1988.

The section between I-64 and I-55/70 now is expected to be open in 1986, with the northern extension to the nursing facility one year.

Born in Kaptol, Yugoslavia, to the late Matthew and Filomena (Sekadla) Szazma, Mr. Szazma was a member of Eastland Lodge 404, CSA. His wife, the former Eva Svehlid, died Nov. 23, 1978.

Prior to retiring some years ago, he was employed 45 years as a cooper barrel maker at the Armour and Co. plant.

Among the survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Frank (Mary) Wondra of Granite City; a son, Joseph A. Szazma of Collinsville; four grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Private services were held at 11 a.m. today, May 24, at Kasky's Colonial Mortuary in Fairview Heights, with Pastor Dennis Kastens officiating. Burial was in Lake View Memorial Gardens, Belleville.

Doris Schwertman

Mrs. Doris M. (Kelly) Schwertman, 56, a lifelong resident of Granite City, died at 4:40 a.m. Wednesday, May 23, 1984, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

She was a resident of Colonial Haven Nursing Home for one year and was hospitalized four weeks.

Mrs. Schwertman was of the Protestant faith. Her husband, Charles Schwertman, died April 1983. Survivors include one brother, Everett Kelly of Granite City, and three sisters, Mrs. John (Velma) Farrance, Granite City; Mrs. Betty Cease of San Dimas, Calif.; and Mrs. Opal Kuennen of St. Louis.

There will be no visitation. The Rev. Henry Crippen will conduct 10 a.m. graveside service at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township, on Friday, May 25. Davis Funeral Home, 21st Street and Cleveland Boulevard, was in charge of arrangements.

Last Saturday Heart and Sole Runs attract 225 runners

Hospital officials estimate that 225 people participated in both St. Elizabeth Medical Center's Heart and Sole Runs last Saturday.

Attended by both KTVI's Channel 2 Zip Rzeppa and KSDK's Channel 5 Art Holliday, the 5-mile run began at 9:30 a.m. and the mile fun run began shortly afterwards.

Sam Nesbit was the overall winner of the 5-mile run while Marianne Colter was the first woman to cross the finish line. Steve Koelker of Venice was the first to cross the finish line in the one-mile run.

BEGINNING with the women, Kim Ames won the age 15 and under group of the five-mile run, while Michelle Shoemaker was the first to cross the finish line of the 16 to 18 age group.

Marianne Colter, the first woman to cross the finish line, was the winner in her age category 19 to 29.

In the age 30 to 39 group, Mary Jo Blackwood was the first to cross the finish line while Jackie Brasket was the first woman age 40 to 49 to cross the stripe.

Ginny Harrison, is the final women's age group winner, winning the 50 to 59 age group.

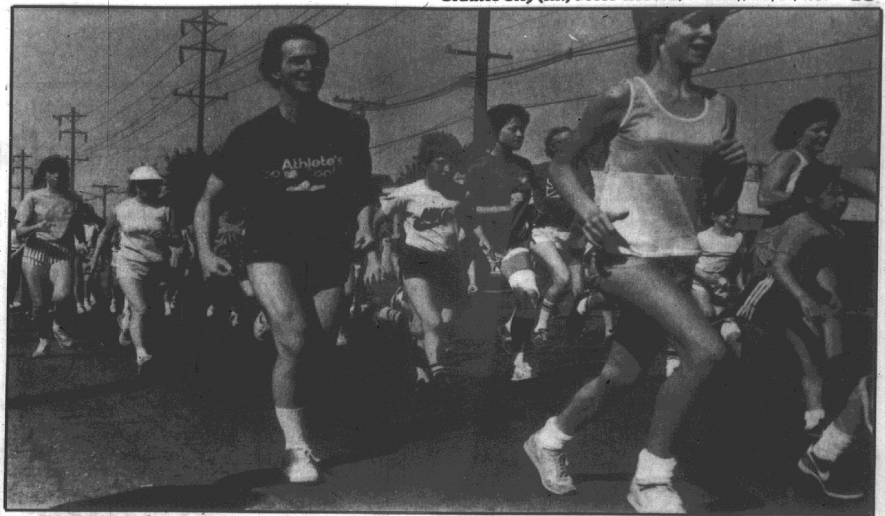

WINNING the youngest age group in the men's divisions was Paul Schultz, age 15 and under. Ken Kalka, was the men's division second age group winner as he was the first 16 to 18 year old to cross the finish line.

In the age 19 to 29 group, Sam Nesbit took the overall champion honors while Mark Davidson, who finished second behind Nesbit, was recognized as first in that age group.

Pat Drayton picked up the next group's age group title as he was the first male age 30 to 39 to cross the finish line.

At 40 to 49 years, Glen Roth was the first to finish while Norman Colter was the first 50 to 59 participant.

Granite City High's varsity wrestling coach Bill Schmitt took top honors in the 60 years and over category as he bettered Wilbur Bagby's efforts in that division.

SEMI-FUN RUN. Zip Rzeppa, sports director for KTVI Channel 2, joins local runners in a one-mile fun run during the weekend sponsored by the St. Elizabeth Medical Center. The fun run was run simultaneously with the Heart and Sole five-mile run. Steve Koelker of Venice finished first in the fun run and Granite City's Sam Nesbit won the five-mile race. More than 225 runners participated in the two events.

Spanky's semi-pros debut at Hoppe Field

By AL BARNES
of the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE The 7-Up-Spanky's baseball team, formerly the Civics, inaugurates its seventh straight season here tonight at Hoppe Field beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Bill Stolte, ex-All American outfielder for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and a star for Spanky's for the past five years, has been named player-manager of the team. He'll be in his regular berth in center field.

"We expect to employ the same running type of baseball taught us by our old SIUE skipper, Roy E. Lee, who managed the locals in the Civics' first two seasons," Stolte said. "Coach Lee believes, and we do too, that you have to force your opposition to perform under pressure."

Those type of tactics have paid off for Spanky's down through the years. They have never had a losing season and have qualified six times to play in the national tournament held by the National Baseball Congress in Wichita, Kas. each August.

Pursuing the opposition in Thursday night's game will be the Highland-Pierson Merchants.

After that tune-up, Stolte and his charges will participate in the annual Memorial Day weekend tournament at Maryville College in West St. Louis County Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Incidentally, Lee will return to help by serving as pitching coach, Stolte said. "Skip (Lee) had by-pass surgery just a little over a year ago, but he now feels that he can help us. We certainly welcome him back."

STOLTE said he'd use two catchers this year, one new and another one familiar with Spanky's. New to University in Tulsa in the season just completed, catching mostly, but also playing third base as well.

"Keith is a power hitter," says Stolte, "and we can use him both behind the plate and at third base as well as our designated hitter."

DOUG PETERS, who starred brilliantly at shortstop last year, again racked up a strong season for Delta State University in Mississippi. A native of Florida, Peters' defensive ability at shortstop was proven in

'83. Peters now, with his Delta State teammate, Roger Hill, signed on to play second base, Spanky's defense down the middle will be truly outstanding.

Others in the lineup Thursday night will be Granite City's Tom Greco at first base; Granite City's Rick Daily at the hot corner; in left field it will be another Granite City star, the veteran Jack Scarborough, who has played on every Civics'—7-Up Spanky's team since it was organized back in 1978. Completing the outfield, in right, will be a St. Louis native who starred this past season for the University of Arkansas, Jonathon Victorian. Victorian led Arkansas in stolen bases with 49 and hit an outstanding 340.

IN RESERVE, says Stolte, will be another Granite City player, a sure-fielding outfielder, Danny Patterson hit nine homers and batted .440 for Southeast Missouri State University at Cape this past season. Spanky's utility infielder will be demutative Bill Buntin who played a lot of shortstop for the '83 St. Louis County Browns following a sensational collegiate career down at Southwest Missouri State in Springfield.

Says Pat Peterson, general manager of Spanky's: "Our '84 infield and outfield and catching is, without a doubt, the best we've ever fielded. Potentially, it could easily hit a combined .333 and defensively be very, very strong. It's pitching that's got me worried."

AA Regional begins today

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY When the Granite City High School varsity baseball team was seeded second last week for this weekend's Collinsville Regional Tournament, Warrior coach Bob Stegemeyer couldn't have been happier with the seeding. But being the type of coach he is, Stegemeyer was still looking for another little plus which may help spur his team to a regional championship.

That little extra boost may have come last week, just days after the Warriors were granted their second seed, when the regional site was moved from Collinsville's Art Fletcher Field to GCC's Varsity Field. The relocation of the regional, because of "inadequate field conditions," now gives the Warriors a home field advantage.

A HOME field advantage is nice, but it still comes down to how you play on the field," Stegemeyer said Wednesday afternoon. "We really haven't played that well at home or away for that matter."

Then he conceded, "We've been playing better, improved baseball in the last three weeks. When the regional comes, it's a matter of putting it all together. You can't afford even one bad ball game in a single-elimination tournament like a regional. There can't be any let-downs," Stegemeyer said.

PELTON, the fourth recruit, is both the biggest and most goal-oriented back that Petri has recruited this year. At 6-feet 1-inch and 185 pounds, Pelton scored five goals last season from his sweeper back position at Hazelwood East.

A business major, Pelton offered different reasons why he will play for the Stars this season.

"I could've gone to Flo Valley, Forest Park, or UMHS, but I was looking to get away from people who I've played with before. I'm looking for some new people to play and play with," Pelton said.

The acquisition of Rocco, Caples, Valenti and Pelton brings the Stars' 1984 roster to 12. Petri said he expects as many as six more recruits before the season begins Sept. 8 against Lewis and Clark. Last year the GCC Stars-BAC Dutchmen finished their first winning season ever with a 12-8 record.

AND, ALL three of the Warriors' last losses have come late in the games where the Warriors have surrendered the lead and lost by as little as one run.

The fact that the Warriors are playing better baseball is not something that only they and their coaches are recognizing. Last week, during the regional seeding meeting, the Warriors, then 12-5, were seeded second, ahead of East St. Louis Lincoln, a team with a winning record of 11-8.

East St. Louis Senior grabbed the top seed in the tournament while Cahokia, then 9-13, was seeded fourth and host Collinsville, 7-16 at the seeding meeting, was seeded fifth.

ALTHOUGH the Warriors will not see action until Saturday when they take on East St. Louis Lincoln at 12:30 p.m. at Varsity Field, Cahokia and Collinsville will battle this afternoon in Cahokia for the right to meet top seeded East St. Louis Senior on Saturday, prior to the Warrior-Tiger matchup.

The regional championship is slated for Monday, May 28, at noon at Varsity Field. The regional champion will advance to the Granite City High Sectional Tournament June 2 and 4. The winner of this weekend's regional will vie the winners of three other area regionals — Belleville West, Edwardsville and Carbondale — for the sectional championship and the right to advance to the Class AA state baseball tournament June 7 and 8 at Robin Roberts Field in Springfield.

TURNING back to the regional, Stegemeyer has both reason to fear and feel comfortable for his Warriors as they enter the tournament. His reason to fear is, as often is the case, the unknown.

"I really don't know that much about either East St. Louis Lincoln or Senior," Stegemeyer said Wednesday. "I haven't ever played them."

The reason for Stegemeyer's optimism as his team enters the tournament hinges on the Warriors' recent successes. "There really isn't anyone around who's awesome. I don't think there's anyone around who we haven't beaten or hasn't lost to someone we've beaten."

WITH THAT, Stegemeyer released his starting lineup for Saturday's game with Lincoln. Pitching will be Sam Tate, the Warriors' ace right hander whose record stands at 5-4.

Receiving Tate will be senior Jim Moulden. The infield rounds out with sophomore Steve Davis at first base, Randy Thurman at second, Greg Ehlers at shortstop and Scott Grota at third.

Should the Warriors need to, Ernie Gray will relief Tate Saturday. If Granite City advances to the sectional championship, sophomore Mark Bowen will pitch for the Warriors.

Stars announce the recruitment of four

GRANITE CITY Under the auspices that a good defense makes the best offense, Granite City Center soccer coach Larry Petri announced the recruitment of four backs Tuesday.

All from St. Louis, the recruits and Petri entered the Press-Record office Tuesday to formally announce their recruitment. Joining the Stars this year are Marty Rocco and Mike Caples, both of Riverview Gardens. Tony Valenti of Rosary High School and Scott Pelton of Hazelwood East High School.

"Defense is and will continue to be a big part of the success of our program," Petri said. "The recruitment of these four is definitely a big boost to our program."

PETRI lost most of his backs this year to graduation, but not all. The one returning letterman from last year is perhaps the Stars' best. Rick Moder. Moder was named a JuCo

All-American last year.

Granite Cityans may remember Rocco and Caples from last year's Granite City High School Tournament of Champions soccer tournament. The two Riverview Rams helped bolster their team past the Warriors as well as Vianney, a perennial St. Louis powerhouse, and eventually finished third in the tournament.

Rocco, a sweeper back, managed one goal last year for the Rams from his defensive position. The second

Warrior girls win; meet Bethalto this afternoon

By PAULA WISE
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City High School girls' softball team advanced to the second round of the regional tournament Monday with a 6-3 victory over the Minutemaid of Bunker Hill.

The game, which was originally scheduled to be played in Bunker Hill, was changed to the Wilson Park diamond when Bunker Hill was victimized by a rainstorm.

The Warriors capitalized on their home field advantage in the first inning as they scored two runs on just one hit to jump to an early 2-1 lead.

Although Warrior coach Jim Davis did not want to minimize his team's victory, he did feel the change in game sites was a definite advantage for his team.

"It took away an hour bus ride for us and made them do it. That may have been an advantage but we played awfully well. I don't want to take that away from the girls," said Davis.

The win advances the Warriors to the second round of the tournament where they will meet Bethalto today in a 4 p.m. contest. Bethalto is the number one seed in the tournament.

Despite the number one seed Coach Davis feels his team can play against Bethalto.

"I'd say we've got a shot at them. They've got a good team and a great pitcher. But if we can manufacture some runs we've got a chance at an upset.

"I'd HAVE a chance at winning I think we will have to play well and hold them to five runs or less," Davis said.

The Warriors were defeated by the Eagles 10-0 early in the season, but Davis feels his team has improved greatly since that time.

Evidence of that fact came on Monday as the Warriors came from behind to defeat the Minute Maids.

Trailing 3-2 going into the fourth inning, the Warriors scored four runs on just one hit to move ahead 6-3. The Warriors held the Minutemaid scoreless for the remainder of the game.

Kathy Hutchings got the win for the Warriors as she relieved starting pitcher, Michelle Morgan, who went just three innings.

Morgan had been called twice in the early innings for "crow hopping" or pushing off the mound twice. She was also struggling with her control.

"Michelle was having control problems so we thought we would give Kathy a chance," said Davis. "She doesn't throw very hard but one thing she can do is throw strikes."

"The combination of her and Michelle has really seemed to baffle the other teams this year. The combination has been great for us so far."

State tennis tourney today

BLOOMINGTON — Highland Park and Winnetka (New Trier) figure to be in the thick of the team title race in the 49th annual Illinois High School Association (IHSA) Boys State Final Tennis Tournament this weekend on the courts of District 214 in the Arlington Heights area.

Defending champion New Trier, led by last year's third place singles finisher Chip McCall, won the title a year ago with 44 points. Highland Park was fourth at 36 and Bloomington High School was fifth at 35.

Competition gets underway today at 2 p.m. with the first round of the championship bracket to be followed by the first consolation round. Friday, play begins at 8 a.m. and continues through the quarterfinals of the championship bracket. On Saturday, the consolation quarterfinals start at 8 a.m., followed by the semifinals in the championship bracket at 9 a.m. The singles and doubles title matches are scheduled to start at approximately 1 p.m.

The top three in singles from a year ago return. Sophomore Mike Morrison of Deerfield was first with a win over then-junior Chris Williams of Hinsdale Central. Then came McCall.

Then-freshman Dave Gollob teamed with senior Tom Fret to take the doubles crown for New Trier, but the Bloomington High School tandem of Eric Nixon and Pat Jennings could replace that twosome as No. 1 this spring.

Jennings and Nixon teamed with different partners last spring and both were beaten in the doubles quarterfinals.

Another strong doubles team is the LaGrange (Lyons) team of Dan Bowers and Mike Hill, which won this year's Bloomington Invitational, and which was fifth in the state last spring.

Granite City High, the winners of its own sectional tournament last weekend, will send six athletes to the state championships. Representing the Warriors on the courts will be David Reed, first singles, Jeff Rush, second singles, Matt Sheridan and Rob Lombardi, first doubles and Jerry Lakin and Dave Warfield in second doubles.

Other GCHS Sectional qualifiers include Alton-Marquette's Chris McNeill, first singles, Rick Kuehnle, Wood River's first singles player and Alton High's Shane and Todd Volland in doubles.

Graham signs JuCo standout Jones

EDWARDSVILLE — David Jones, a 6'4" guard from St. Louis, has become the first junior college player to sign a letter of intent with the basketball Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, according to Head Coach Larry Graham.

Jones, a prep standout at Brentwood High School, joins the Cougars' rebuilding program after an outstanding two-year career at Jefferson County Junior College. While at JCJC, Jones led the Vikings to a two-year mark of 46-19, including a 23-10 mark last season.

Recognized as one of the best defensive players in the St. Louis area, Jones averaged 11 points and six rebounds per game last season while connecting on 51 percent of his field goal attempts. He was also selected as co-captain of the Vikings and was an honorable mention All-Midwest Junior College Conference selection. He capped his junior college career by being selected the team's best defensive player for the second time.

As a prep standout, Jones led the Brentwood Eagles with 21 points and eight rebounds per game as a senior. He was named All-Suburban South Conference and All-District as well as being selected to the third team of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch All-Metro squad and second team All-State in 1982. He capped his high school career by being selected to play in the St. Louis City-Suburban All-Star game.

Following the signing, Coach Graham commented, "David is an outstanding defensive player. He has exceptional quickness and gives us something we will need next season experience. I expect him to fit into my style of play quickly and as a result, I expect he will receive a lot of playing time next year."

Boys' state track meet begins at EIU Friday

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

RED BUD — Madison's George Leonard used some record-breaking speed and the Trojans' 400-meter relay team ran their best time of the year to qualify for the Class A State Track Meet this weekend at Charleston.

Leonard finished second in the 300-meter low hurdles Saturday in the Red Bud Sectional with a 38.7 time to break the school's record of 39.3 held by Mike Terrell. Leonard qualified for the state meet by finishing in the top two, but also surpassed the state qualifying time of 39.6.

The Madison senior competed in the hurdles at the state meet last year, running a 39.75 in preliminaries. His time was more than a half-second away from qualifying for the state finals.

LEONARD, however, may have a better shot at getting to the finals this year. Leonard's improvement is evident with his 38.7 time at the sectional, bettering last year's state performance and 39.9 time in last year's sectional.

Madison's 400-meter relay team, composed of Leonard, Rouzell Porter, Leroy Latham and Shawn Brown, finished third at the sectional with a 44.4 time. The team was edged of second place by Mounds Meridian with a 44.3 time, but Madison snuck past the state qualifying time of 44.5.

The same four individuals on the relay team ran at the state meet last year, but were eliminated from the finals during preliminaries with a 44.34 time. The team missed the finals by just one-tenth of a second.

MADISON coach Charlie Steptoe said the relay members are looking to qualifying for the finals this year by finishing in the top eight teams during preliminaries Friday. He said the team did exceptionally well in the sectional, despite a hamstring pull bothering Brown. The Madison sprinter suffered the injury May 12 during the 100-meter dash at the DuQuoin Classic meet.

"He was right behind George (Leonard) and finished second," said Steptoe. "But he pulled a hamstring as he was slowing down. It was an expensive second-place finish."

Because of the injury, Brown was scratched from the 100- and 200-meter dashes Saturday, but ran in the relay.

"HE'S able to run now, but he's performing at about 80 percent," said Steptoe. "We would have had a better finish at the sectional if he were fully recovered."

Cairo, the defending state champion, took the sectional trophy with 52½ points. Madison collected 15 points to finish sixth out of the 22 teams.

Madison's biggest disappointment at the meet came when sophomore standout Reggie Young failed to qualify for state. He finished third in the triple jump with a 41-foot 7-inch mark, short of the 43-foot 9½-inch state qualifying standard. Young finished sixth in the long jump with a 20-foot 3½-inch mark, less than a foot off the 21-foot 6-inch state qualifying standard.

"HE'S jumped well all season, but he just had an off day Saturday," said Steptoe. One of Young's best performances came at the Red Bud Invitational on April 28, where he was named the meet's outstanding field performer for winning both the triple jump with a 42-foot 6½-inch mark and the long jump with a 21-foot 3-inch leap.

Also collecting sectional points for the Trojans were the 3200-meter relay team, which finished fourth in 8:48, and the 800-meter relay team, which finished fifth with 1:33.5. The teams failed to meet the state qualifying times of 8:15 in the 3200 and 1:32.5 in the 800.

LEONARD and the Trojan 400 meter relay team are just a few of the Quad-Cityans who will compete in this weekend's state track meet. In addition to those Trojans, Granite City High School's Jim Robertson and Eric Graves will compete this weekend.

Last Saturday, in the Belleville East Sectional, the two Warriors competed and qualified in the 3200 meter run and the high and long jumps. The two each met qualifying standards set by the Illinois High School Association.

This weekend's state meet, the 90th annual meet, will begin on Friday with the preliminaries at Eastern Illinois University's O'Brien Stadium track.

THE CLASS A field events are scheduled to begin Friday at 12:30 p.m. and the running events are scheduled for approximately 2:15 p.m.

The large school, Class AA, field event and running event preliminaries are set to start Friday at 9 a.m. Finals will begin Saturday in the field events at 11 a.m. and in the running events at 12:15 p.m.

Season tickets will be on sale Friday at a reduced price of $5. Single-session tickets will be $3 each.

There will be only two defending individual champions return in either class. In Class A, there is Riverston's Sean Canady in the shot put and sprinter Rodney Harris of Chicago's Providence St. Mel in the 100 meter dash.

THE CLASS AA defending champions returning are Van Cowden of Danville High School in the long jump and David Bond of Decatur McArthur in the triple jump. Tim Phillips of Arlington Heights St. Viator won the Class AA 3200 meter relay in record time last year, but competes only in the 1600 meter run this weekend.

Melrose Park (Walther Lutheran) appears to be the team everybody will chase for in the Class A team tie, while East St. Louis Lincoln area sister school East St. Louis Sr. will battle with Rock Island High for the Class AA honors.

Baker soccer camp registration

Granite City High School soccer coach Gene Baker has slated his annual soccer camps in June this year. And, as last year, the site of the camps will be the St. Elizabeth School soccer fields.

The Warrior coach will instruct four camps during a two-week period, a boys' and girls' camp beginning June 11 and a second pair of camps the following week of June 18.

During each week the girls' camp will begin at 8 a.m. and last until 11 a.m. The boys' camp will begin at 11 a.m. and last until 4 p.m. The camps, which are open to the first 100 who register, is for persons eight to 18 years.

The cost of the camp is $50 per camper and $80 for two campers in the same family. The $50 fee will also apply if campers elect to attend camps both the first and second weeks.

To register for the camps, persons may call (314) 355-2374.

For team rates and information, persons should call Phil Achenbach at 931-3045.

Amvets Auxiliary 51 elects new officers

A second nomination and election of officers was held during a recent meeting of Amvets Auxiliary 51 of 5100 Lakeview Drive.

The newly elected officers are: Shirley Schienschang, president; Alberta Manninger, first vice president; Jenny Kidwell, second vice president; Ann Tucker, third vice president; Betty Clements, treasurer and Glenda Brockman, secretary.

President elect Schienschang appointed the following to assist during the forthcoming year, Americanism and S.O.S. (Serve Our Servicemen) chairman, Betty Wilkins; liaison, Charlotte Torregrossa; sergeant-at-arms and ways and means chairman, Barbara Siebert; chaplain, Betty Clements, parliamentarian, Alberta Manninger; hospital chairman, Brenda White who will also be junior amvets' advisor; P.R.O., Shirley Schienschang and historian, Glenda Brockman.

Prior to the election, a business meeting was conducted by President Glenda Brockman, preceded by an opening prayer by Chaplain Clements, pledge of allegiance led by sergeant-at-arms Wilkins, and the roll call and reading of the previous minutes by Secretary Torregrossa.

Treasurer White gave an accounting of auxiliary funds which showed an appropriation taken from the Child Welfare Fund to cover the purchase of five tickets for a high school sponsored project with the proceeds benefiting the Multiple Sclerosis Drive.

Senior Vice President Barbara Siebert reported having received another renewal which now gives the auxiliary a total membership of 35.

The auxiliary was the recipient of a plaque, according to junior vice president, Jenny Kidwell. She related that Mrs. Ann Parrill, activities director of the Madison County Sheltered Care Home, singled out the auxiliary for its many years of devotion to the home and its residents. Mrs. Kidwell then displayed an engraved plaque given recently for the residents.

Alberta Manninger, hospital chairman, spoke of the auxiliary's activities at John Cochran Veteran Hospital, St. Louis, which consist of monthly parties and monthly distribution of arts and crafts. Mrs. Manninger also said that the annual awards ceremony and banquet for volunteers will be held this year at Mississippi Nites on Laclede's Landing on June 27th at 11 a.m.

Betty Wilkins, Americanism and S.O.S. (Serve Our Servicemen) chairman, acknowledged a thank you card from the U.S.O. in appreciation of the Cups-O-Soup she had taken to the facility at Lambert Field. She also thanked auxiliary members who had helped judge the Americanism essay entries received from sixth grade school children. Mrs. Wilkins announced that the winning essay on "Preserve Freedom Here's How" was submitted by Kim Gilbert, a student at Prather School. She will receive a $50 Savings Bond. The second place winner from St. Elizabeth School was Janelle Yobbi. She will be presented with a gift certificate from Baskin-Robbins.

Auxiliary members who participated in Pledge of Allegiance Day Ceremonies at various schools were thanked by Mrs. Wilkins. The participating representatives and schools cited by Mrs. Wilkins were Shirley Schienschang, Mitchell; Jenny Kidwell, Marshall; Ann Tucker, Parkview and Mrs. Wilkins at Niedringhaus School. She reported that children at all schools assembled outdoors at 12:30 p.m. where a proclamation was read concerning the flag, followed by the raising of the flag, the pledge of allegiance and the singing of a patriotic song. According to Mrs. Wilkins, this same program was held simultaneously by school children throughout the United States.

Junior Amvets advisor, Alberta Manninger, announced that she and Senior Vice President Barbara Siebert accompanied two Junior Amvets, Jaymie Siebert and Ida Manninger, to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where they presented the pediatric floor with a gift of toys, games and books which were donated by the youth organizations.

Before adjourning the meeting, President Brockman announced that the installation of officers will be held at the post home on June 9th at 7 p.m.

WINNERS, Natasha Gregg of Granite City, won the title of Little Miss Pageant and first place in the best poised category of the Little Miss Pageant held in Belleville. She will advance to the state finals in Decatur on July 7. Carla Jones, right, of Madison won first place in best photographic division and was first runner up in the Belleville competition.

DAR members attend McKendree dedication

The Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the National Daughters of the American Revolution held its May meeting in the Chimney Room of the Burns Cafeteria.

Regent Sandra Wilkinson conducted the opening ceremonies, assisted by Margaret Belt, acting chaplain.

The President General's message was read by Florence Simpson and Georgia Engleke gave the National defense report.

Mrs. Wilkinson reported on her attendance at a dedication ceremony at McKendree College in Lebanon, Ill. The state DAR organizations honored the college as being the oldest college in the state of Illinois. A plaque was placed on the church, which is on the campus. Another member, Barbara Williams, accompanied Mrs. Wilkinson to Lebanon, it was noted.

The regent reminded members of the Division VI Roundtable meeting at Altamont on June 15 and of the upcoming chapter anniversary tea in September.

Mrs. Janet Wilson and Mrs.

Wilkinson reviewed the resolutions passed by the chapter representatives at the state convention in Decatur. Some included support for the renovation of the Statue of Liberty, conservation of resources and national defense interests.

Others in attendance were Mrs. Ethel Beeler, Mrs. Florence Woodward, Mrs. Linda Koenig, Miss Mildred McCormick, Miss Mae McCormick, and Miss Ella Ray Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt name girl Kelly Ann

Senior Citizen Council meets

Senior Citizen Clubs in the Quad-City area sent representatives to the Granite City Senior Citizen Council meeting held at the township hall to discuss various activities held during the year and to plan programs for the forthcoming month.

Clubs represented were, Happy Group, More the Merrier, Kirkpatrick Home Golden Agers, Y.M.C.A., Hilltoppers from St. John United Church of Christ, Monday afternoon pinocle, Saturday afternoon and night pinocle clubs, of Anchorage, Friday afternoon pinocle at Harold Brown Recreation Center, Keen Agers of Central Christian Church, Anchorage Senior Citizen Club, and the American Association of Retired Persons.

The council agreed to hold a bingo game on June 11 at no charge to play from 7 to 9:30 p.m. with refreshments to follow.

Also, on June 25 the council will sponsor a dance featuring Howard Bolton's Alley Cats, from 7 to 10 p.m. There will be refreshments and admission will be $1 per person.

producers, be they fossil-fuel fed solar sources, or nuclear in nature.

A question and answer session followed his presentation. Ruth Stoyanoff then gave a report on the voting record of two Illinois senators, neither supported the federal retirees' position and instead voted to delay for seven months the cost-of-living allowance which should have been reflected on annuity checks received June 1st. She also stated that NARFE's lawsuit requests that the court set aside recent federal legislative actions deferring or curtailing retirees entitlements is still in the response-filing stage.

Walters then gave a report on the Illinois 29th NARFE Convention held in Oak Lawn, and reviewed the contents of the packet given each of the 188 convention participants upon registration and described the highlights of the convention.

Frank Scaglione will represent Chapter 1067 at NARFE's 18th National Convention. President Walters concluded the meeting after announcing that the next session would be held at Charlie's at 11:30 a.m. June 11, inasmuch as it will be the final one before the summer break, the June meeting will not have a formal program and, will be a social get-together of members, he explained. Any retired federal employee who would like to join NARFE Chapter 1067 may do so by the June gathering or call Walters at 876-3969, Ruth Stoyanoff at 876-9036 or Publicity Committee Chairman Daryl B. Fleet Reserve Auxiliary hears conference report Greater St. Louis Unit 267, Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Association's delegate, Ada Matras, of Granite City, returned from the North Central Region Mid-Year Conference of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Association (LA FRA) in Oscoda, Mich. and reported the conference proved to be very informative and was attended by delegates from all the Units in the North Central Region.

The business session opened with a joint Fleet Reserve Association (FRA) and Ladies Auxiliary Opening Ceremony in the Crosswinds Recreation Center at Wurtsmith Air Force Base. After the call to order, opening prayer, pledge of allegiance, reciting of the FRA and LA FRA preambles, the past and present regional and national officers were introduced (The only past regional officer from the Greater St. Louis area present was Shipmate John Matras of Granite City).

The ladies retired to the Fireside Lounge for a LA FRA workshop, that covered discussions of C&BL's, filling out regional and national reports, and ways to improve news bulletins at the national, regional and unit levels. The principal speaker at the workshop was T. I. King, National Americanism Chairman FRA from Chula Vista, Calif. When the workshop was completed the ladies rejoined the members of the FRA for a general "Good of the Order" discussion, the salutation to the departed shipmates and ladies, closing prayer and adjournment of the conference business meeting.

The conference had its lighter side with a "Welcome Aboard Party" on Friday night, and on Saturday morning there was a tour of Wurtsmith Air Force Base and a B-52 and KC-135 aircrafts. At Noon on Saturday the ladies attended a fashion show at the base exchange and in the evening a banquet and ball. On Sunday morning, before all the delegates departed for their homes, a "Anchor Aweigh" breakfast was served.

Delegates were from Missouri, Illinois, Oklahoma, Kansas, Arkansas, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Kentucky, Michigan, Nebraska, Minnesota and Iowa.

Wilson Park pool may open Monday

Wilson Park swimming pool will open at 1 p.m. Monday, May 28, if all goes according to plan, David Nolan, Granite City superintendent of parks and recreation, said this week.

Hesitancy in announcing the pool's opening day operating schedule results from a delay in the shipment here of chlorine supplies, Nolan explained.

"Whether we can open or not on Monday depends on when we receive the shipment," he said.

Persons wishing to use the pool Monday may call 876-7466 for up-to-date information, or drive past the Wilson Park flagpole, near 27th Street and Delmar Avenue, where a sign will be posted advising residents if the pool will be open, Nolan advised.

If able to operate, the pool hours will be from 1 p.m. until 8 p.m. Monday and from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday, May 29, through Thursday, May 31.

The swimming facility will be open from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. Friday, June 1, the park district superintendent said.

WE'RE CELEBRATING OUR 27th YEAR...

America's Oldest Lawn Spray Company...

We know, as all agronomists know, that the secret to beautiful grass is properly scheduled applications of fertilizer, weed killers to control both grass types (crabgrass) and broadleaf (dandelions-chickweed) weeds and insecticide to control webworms, chinch bugs, etc.

Included in our spray program are applications of SLOW RELEASE NITROGEN THAT NEVER STOPS FEEDING as long as grass is growing and actually slows down its feeding during periods of low rainfall when it's not needed. If your lawn isn't receiving applications of SLOW RELEASE NITROGEN you're not getting your money's worth.

THE GREEN LAWN PLAN provides five sprays — early Spring, late Spring, Summer, late Summer, and Fall. It supplies fertilizers just when your lawn needs them. Five broadleaf weed sprays to control dandelion, chickweed, buckhorn, plantain, spurge . . . Those weeds that seem never to stop coming up from early Spring to late Fall. Crabgrass control in the Spring and insecticide applications in the Summer.

Trinity Methodist evening worship set

Trinity United Methodist Church has begun a Sunday evening worship service. The evening vespers are held in the church fellowship hall, at 25th and Henry streets, at 7 p.m.

According to the pastor, the Rev. J. Michael Smith, the Sunday evening worship is designed to meet the needs of three groups of people: those who miss Sunday morning because of work, those who miss Sunday morning because of recreation, family, or leisure outings, and those who traditionally have enjoyed a Sunday evening worship as a part of their church experience. "Worship is too important to people for us to limit them to just a Sunday morning option," said Rev. Smith.

The Sunday evening vespers consist of hymn singing, prayer, fellowship, and Biblical exposition.

Over 200 members of the congregation attended the reception in Fellowship Hall, hosted by the church council. Additionally, special recognition was given to Pastor Reiter by Church Council President Charles Hasse during the morning worship services, and James Benzling, student intern, read several congratulatory messages, including one from Dr. William Koshewa, Illinois South Conference Minister.

Pastor Reiter is a native of Edwardsville, where he graduated from Edwardsville High School in 1966.

In 1970, he received a B.A. degree from Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville in history and speech. In 1974, Pastor Reiter earned a Masters degree in Divinity from Eden Theological Seminary in Webster Groves, Mo.

Following ordination, Rev. Reiter accepted a position as Associate pastor of St. John's U.C.C. in Mansfield, Ohio. He left Mansfield in 1976, to become the pastor of Calvary U.C.C. in Crestline, Ohio, a position which he held until coming to Granite City in September of 1980.

Al Barnes competes for 'the gold'

by SANDY HAAS

Among the hopeful participants for the opening game of the sixth annual Southwestern Illinois Regional Senior Olympics at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was Al Barnes, a 56-year-old retired steelworker from Granite City.

Shortly after 9 a.m. Barnes was warming up for the one-mile walk, to begin at 9:30.

AS THE OLYMPIC hopeful did his warm-up exercises, a young photographer took several sequential pictures of the routine. His photographic eye was turned only on Barnes, ignoring the dozens of other senior athletes all around him.

Had Barnes hired his own professional photographer to record his athletic feats? If that was the case, Barnes was the contestant everyone should pay close attention to during the day's events.

The young man was Terry Barnes, an architect for the May Company, from Brentwood. No, Terry Barnes was not a professional photographer under contract. His last name, Barnes, was the same as Al Barnes' name, by no mistake.

TERRY BARNES had turned from architect to photographer-for-a-day, to record his father's athletic prowess.

The younger Barnes, an athlete himself with the St. Louis Track Club, described his father as "a good walker." His father had won second place in last year's one-mile walk.

The elder Barnes said he felt prepared for the upcoming race. "You can't run," he said. "If you break into a running stride, you are disqualified. I went to train in classes in Maryland to learn how to maintain the required form for this race."

A WALKING RACE doesn't sound too strenuous to the typical observer, standing on the sidelines. But to maintain an energetic walk for one mile (that's four times around the track) takes a lot of stamina. And as all athletes know, stamina is developed by a disciplined regimen of exercise.

Barnes explained his exercise program. "I run up and down the stairs at home. I also go to shopping centers and run up and down the stairs there, instead of using the elevators and escalators. I don't go to malls to shop. I go there to exercise."

Barnes also had another supportive fan on the track's side line. Patricia Barnes Tozier, a flight attendant for American Airlines, hadn't flown all the way from Spartan, N.J., just to test her wings. Her middle name, Barnes, was no coincidence either.

MRS. TOZIER had traveled to Edwardsville, Ill., to see her father participate in the senior games. "I wouldn't miss this for all the world," she explained.

Mrs. Tozier recalled her father telling her and her brother to "hate" during competitive sports when they were children. "He would say, 'Move those legs.' Now I can tell him the same thing."

She said that being physically fit has been important to their family. "I run and lift weights to keep in shape. I have to stay in shape because the other flight attendants are all younger than I am. I am always in the public eye. And I want to look good," she explained.

Barnes also has another daughter in California. "She runs all the time, too," Mrs. Tozier said.

AT 9:30 A.M. the starting gun sounded and Barnes sprang into his rapid, rhythmic walk with 61 other senior hopefuls.

Al Barnes captured the bronze medal as he crossed the finish line.

He didn't come in first, but it was presence, he and his children possess something much more precious than "the gold."

Nursing program slated at SIUE Summer University

The first phase of a three-year, one-cycle program in Medical-Surgical Nursing is scheduled by the School of Nursing at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, starting June 4 and ending Aug. 24. The program is offered through Summer University.

"The courses are just like those in our regular academic program," noted Martha Welch, associate professor of nursing, "except they're being offered in the summer."

ESPECIALLY CONCERNED with adult medical surgical health, the program is primarily for nurses who teach and are required to obtain a master's degree. According to a rule of the Illinois Department of Education and Registration, which enforces the Illinois Nursing Act, college and university teaching faculty members in nursing are required to have the master's degree.

Missouri and Illinois nurses teaching in associate and diploma degree programs who are free during the summer will find this program offers a unique opportunity; the only other summer instruction of this kind is at the University of Missouri in Columbia. Professor

Welch said, "That program," she added, "is restricted to those living on campus."

SIUE's program can serve students now being recruited actively from all over Illinois and in other states as well. Housing at the university's Tower Lake apartments will be available.

UNDER THE SUMMER University format, the 12-week initial summer of the program is divided into two six-week segments, with classes scheduled on Monday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

"Faculty members from other institutions," Professor Welch said, "will find this convenient, and credit is transferable."

During the three-year cycle, cognate courses and electives may be taken during the regular school year. Those desiring their degrees from SIUE may transfer a maximum of 20 to 23 hours desiring their degrees from SIUE may transfer a maximum of 20 to 23 hours from other universities. This allows all cognates, electives and research methodology, to be taken where the student lives or works during the regular school year.

PROFESSOR WELCH noted that a college credit course in health assessment (physical assessment) is required prior to or during enrollment this first summer.

GINA DELEVSKI,

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Delevski of 2270 Clinton Drive, is a recent graduate of St. John's Hospital School of Nursing, Springfield, Ill. Miss Delevski also received an associate of arts degree from Springfield College. She has accepted a position at Memorial Medical Center, Springfield.

Isaiah 48:31 "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

In every Christian's life there must be a quiet time before God. A time to pray. A time to search God's Word. A time to meditate in His presence.

It goes without saying that we respond to the trials of life much better if we think before we act. We must learn to pray to God in all circumstances and wait for His direction. Not only will our minds be clearer but also our spirit will be refreshed.

I feel we should choose our time for waiting upon the Lord. Pick the place, the hour, and how much time we need to wait before Him. Anticipate this time with Him. Be eager to fellowship with Him.

Remember that you are going to experience a renewing of your strength! God is coming to touch you. To heal you. To inspire you. To reassure you that He will never leave nor forsake you!

Wait upon the Lord and enjoy the blessing of His visitation.

THE LAW AND YOU

BY RICK REED

Attorney At Law

When a person is injured on the job, the only type of action he can pursue is a Workers' Compensation claim. Often an injured worker would rather bring a separate suit against his employer in the Circuit Court because of the possibility of a larger recovery. However, the Illinois legislature decided when it passed the Workers' Compensation Act that this should be the only remedy available to the injured employee.

This fact was demonstrated beyond any shadow of a doubt in a case decided in March of this year. In this case, the employee attempted to bring a medical malpractice action against the company doctor. The plaintiff in this case was required to have a physical performed as a condition of his employment. The examination was performed by the company physician, who failed to diagnose the plaintiff's lung cancer during the course of the physical. The employee subsequently brought a civil suit against the doctor and his company.

One may ask why the injured employee attempted to bring a civil suit before a jury instead of a Workers' Compensation claim before the arbitrator. Certainly, when an employee sustains a permanent injury to a particular part of his body, an arbitrator would compensate him for his loss of use.

The amount of the permanent award in a given case would depend on the part of the body injured, the percentage loss of use of this part of the body, and the average weekly wage of the worker at the time of the injury. As one can well imagine, however, a jury in a medical malpractice case such as the one in our example would normally award substantially more money than would an arbitrator.

The plaintiff contended that he should not be limited to a Workers' Compensation claim because the failure to diagnose was not in connection with the treatment of a work related injury. The employer, on the other hand, argued that the worker suffered a "line of duty" injury since his physical examination was performed during company time on the employer's premises by a doctor employed by the company. The Court in this case agreed with the employer. Because the company doctor's alleged negligence occurred during working hours on company property, the Court ruled that the plaintiff's medical malpractice case had to be dismissed and that he could only bring a Worker's Compensation action.

BAC posts $14.6 million budget

Belleville Area College President Dr. Bruce R. Wissore has presented a proposed $14.6 million budget to the college's board of trustees.

In introducing the tentative budget, Wissore noted that it represents a continuing trend of putting a smaller and smaller percentage of the college's funds into salaries and a larger percentage into equipment and instructional materials.

"Just 73 percent of this budget is earmarked for salaries," Wissore said. "That's a drop from 83 percent six years ago."

An agreement with the faculty union, which calls for the second wage freeze in three years and a lower pay scale for new hires, was a key to continuing this trend, Wissore said. The faculty recognized the tight financial conditions and took actions to relieve the situation.

That contract was reached earlier this year after less than a week of negotiations.

The budget also includes funding for the college's Granite City and Red Bud centers. Granite City Center opened last summer and Red Bud Center will open in January 1985.

Slightly more than $450,000 went out of the budget for the current fiscal year will be added to the college's fund balance and used to finance start-up expenditures at the two centers, Wissore said.

The proposed budget estimates a six percent increase in revenue, including a six percent increase in local tax dollars because of increased assessed valuation in the college district, a four percent increase in state dollars and an eight percent increase in tuition and fees.

"We are seeing an unfortunate trend in that tuition and fees are becoming our pillar of funding, our main source of revenue," Wissore said. "While the state originally was supporting community colleges at a 50 percent level, what we're seeing now is closer to 30 percent. We must make up the difference through tuition."

The proposed budget includes a 70 percent increase in expenditures for instructional equipment.

"Microcomputers are necessary if we are to keep pace with technological changes in many fields," Wissore said. Much of the increase in funding is for purchase of computers for the Belleville campus and Granite City and Red Bud centers, he said.

The college's drafting program will be computerized for the first time in the coming year, Wissore said. Computer equipment also will be purchased for the welding program.

A 27 percent increase in funding for staff development is proposed, according to the tentative budget.

"If our instructors, especially those in the career fields, are going to keep current, it is important that they attend professional meetings," Wissore said.

The budget is prepared through use of zero-based budgeting techniques and a series of open hearings. Administrators and faculty members participate in the process.

"No community college in the state has as many people participating in budget preparation as we do," Wissore said. We look at the budget course-by-course, item-by-item."

A public hearing on the budget is scheduled for 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 27, in rooms 140 and 141 at the BAC main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville. The budget is available for public inspection from now until then.

Harris agrees to stay on Board of Review

By JUDY TAPLIN

Robert A. Harris of Granite City has decided to stay on the Madison County Board of Review after all.

The Madison County board last week confirmed his appointment for another two-year term.

Harris, chairman of the Board of Review, had made it known in April that he would end his stay on the board when his term expired at the end of May.

HE TOLD reporters that his change of mind stemmed from pressure applied by several county officials to get him to continue.

Harris will probably not serve the entire two-year term, however. He will seek election next spring as assessor in Granite City Township, he told a reporter. State law would require him to vacate his Board of Review job at the time of his election, he said.

Meanwhile, apparently in anticipation of his election to the township post, Madison County has announced that qualifying tests for prospective Board of Review members will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, June 15, in the county board room at the courthouse in Edwardsville.

WHEN HARRIS announced that he was leaving the Board of Review, he said the main reason was the time needed for business interests. Sources close to Harris say a grand jury investigation involving assessment practices in Madison County had also soured his interest in retaining the position.

The sources note that Harris and the other two Board of Review members have been called before grand juries three times. The pay for the job is not worth such hassles, Harris has told reporters.

No indictments have been returned as a result of the grand jury probe.

HARRIS SAID the Board of Review exam is being given so that he can more easily leave the board later on.

The results of the June exam are good until July 1, 1986, Supervisor of Assessments James Barton says.

Two members of the Board of Review are appointed from the party holding the majority in the last county election (Democrats); one from the party receiving the second highest vote (Republicans).

Candidates must have experience with employee or customer appraisal and property tax administration and must be residents of Madison County.

Applications are available at the county clerk's office in the courthouse.

HARRIS, one of two Democrats on the Board of Review, was first appointed in 1978.

He operates a warehouse in St. Louis and is a real estate broker.

The five conferences are sponsored by the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA), the U.S. Small Business Administration, as well as local universities, community colleges, governments and private industry in southwestern Illinois.

THE CONFERENCE, "Human Relations in Business Management," will cover analyzing and improving communications with customers and employees, dealing with conflict, improving productivity through positive expectations, and planning action as a commitment for the future.

The conference speaker will be James Miller, director of the Center for Management Studies, School of Business, Southern Illinois University of Edwardsville (SIUE).

The conferences will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Registration fee of $10 per person includes rolls and coffee and all meeting materials.

The "Human Relations in Business Management" conference will be held: May 30, at Granite City Center, 4950 Maryville Road; May 31, at Lewis & Clark Community College, Alden Hall, Conf. Dialogue on drugs

A column by the Chemical People Task Force

Teenagers who use drugs do not simply move from one substance to another. As new research shows, what often begins with cigarettes and alcohol as early as age 11, can turn into a habit that uses an "ever-expanding repertoire" of drugs, both old and new, simultaneously.

The younger the teens were at the time they first used their first drug, the higher the number of different substances they now report using, says psychologist Carol Mills, Ph.D. of Franklin and Marshall College, who studied 4,400 boys and girls from Maryland schools in 1978 and 1980. She and psychologist Harvey Noyes, Ph.D. of Citicorp Financial, Inc., asked the eighth, 10th and 12th graders about their use of drugs and cigarettes and alcohol to marijuana, pills such as amphetamines and barbiturates, cocaine, hallucinogens and finally heroin.

By far the most widely used legal substance was alcohol, consumed by 67 percent of eighth graders, 81 percent of 10th graders and 87 percent of 12th graders. And while nearly half of older teens smoked marijuana (the most frequently used illicit drug), six percent of eighth graders and 19 percent of 12th graders said they smoked it several times a week.

In fact, the greater one's involvement with marijuana, the greater likelihood that he or she will be a multiple drug user, say the psychologists. For example, marijuana use that dropped in all grades in 1980 was soon replaced by rising use of pills, hallucinogens and cocaine.

But for parents and counselors who think drug use actually begins with marijuana, Drs. Mills and Noyes point to other, more legal, culprits. Most students, they found, started first with cigarettes and alcohol, perhaps because they are easier to obtain, more generally accepted, and "perhaps even implicitly condoned by parents, compared to marijuana, and, particularly, to hard drugs." After tobacco and liquor, the pattern moved almost invariably to marijuana, then pills, and finally to heroin and hard drugs.

The researchers caution, however, that using one drug does not necessarily lead to abuse of others. For example, only a small number of high schoolers move on from marijuana to hard drugs. In fact, most students in the Mills and Noyes study did not use illicit drugs, sticking mostly to cigarettes and alcohol. But the psychologists point out that students who use hard drugs rarely do so without experimenting first with marijuana.

Drug users in the study also had poorer grades, more spending money and more uncertain plans for college than nonusers. However, says Drs. Mills and Noyes, the connection between drugs and poor grades also can work in reverse. They cite earlier research in which poor grades actually preceded drug use. "It may be that poor grades lower one's self-esteem and limit one's career options, factors that could lead to an 'escape' into drug use."

Drs. Mills and Noyes urge that drug education and prevention programs be extended into the elementary school years, since students increasingly are reporting their first use of drugs at this age. The psychologists' finding that drug use begins with legal substances also "emphasizes the need to encompass the whole phenomenon of drug use, both legal and illegal, into any drug program."

Anyone having questions or comments about drug or alcohol use may write to: Dialogue on Drugs, Post Office Box 278, Granite City, Ill. 62040. The task force meets at 7 p.m. every Thursday at Maryville School, Room 140.

Three are arrested in local cocaine sale investigation

A federal indictment has been issued against James Wells, 31, whose address is listed as 4396 Highway 162, who was arrested last week by agents of the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois and the federal Drug Enforcement Administration in Pontoon Beach. Two other persons also were taken into custody in connection with the investigation.

Felony charges against Wells include three counts of delivery of a controlled substance, cocaine, and one count of illegal possession of a firearm.

Bond on the federal charges has been set at $250,000 cash. Wells is being held at the St. Clair County Jail.

MEGSI charges include five counts of delivery of a controlled substance, cocaine. Bond on these charges is set at $250,000, or $25,000 cash.

Wells was arrested by MEGSI and federal DEA agents at an alleged drop-off point near the intersection of Routes 111 and 162. He allegedly delivered 10 ounces of cocaine, with an estimated street value of $25,000, to a MEGSI agent at mid-day.

The federal charges also include deliveries of one ounce and two ounces of cocaine at different times.

The investigation and surveillance had been over the past several months.

Wells' trial is set for June 18 before U.S. District Judge William L. Beatty in Alton.

Related to the same investigation, Christopher G. Champion, 26, of 2003 Troy Ave., Cloverleaf Addition, was arrested the same day by MEGSI agents on one state charge of delivery of a controlled substance, cocaine.

His vehicle was stopped by the agents on Route 203 south of the Madison city limits, where he was taken into custody.

His bond was set at $25,000 and he was taken to the Madison County Jail where he later posted $2,500 cash and was released.

He is to appear in Madison County Circuit Court Friday for a preliminary hearing.

Sandra K. Sampson, 20, 2566 Parkway Drive, Apt. 4, was arrested by MEGSI agents, accompanied by Granite City police officers, the following day at that address. The arrest was on five state charges of delivery of a controlled substance, cocaine.

This arrest also was related to the same investigation by MEGSI.

Her bond on the five counts was set at $130,000 and she is being held in the Madison County Jail in Edwardsville. She also is to appear for a preliminary hearing in circuit court Friday.

AUTO FOUND BURNING

A 1973 Lincoln owned by a Wood River man was found engulfed in flames during the weekend on Schaffer Road, near the old Odd Fellows Cemetery off Route 3.

Granite City firefighters extinguished the blaze, but the vehicle was destroyed. Police learned the car belonged to John Bryan of Wood River and apparently was stolen from Mrs. Bryan's place of employment.

An explosion was heard prior to the vehicle burning, reports indicated.

CHAINSAW STOLEN

A 17-inch chainsaw valued at $175 was stolen from a garage at the home of Mary Wilkinson, 1952 Spruce St., she reported during the weekend.

County canine unit involved in mishap

Investigating a report of a possible burglary in progress at Fox Industries this week, officers requested the Madison County Sheriff's Department's canine unit when it was believed two persons were inside.

Due to the configuration of the warehouse facilities, it was impossible to immediately determine if a burglary had occurred or any property was damaged as a consequence, reports indicated. No one was found inside.

Enroute to the scene, Madison County Sheriff's Deputy Mark A. Sprankle of Madison was traveling west on East 23rd Street when his emergency vehicle skidded on wet pavement at the Monroe Street curve and struck a parked auto belonging to James Griffin, 1638 E. 23rd St.

Neither the deputy nor his canine companion were injured.

RAGING FIRE OF USED TIES. A large pile of used railroad cross-ties are engulfed in a raging fire last week on railroad property, apparently unattended. The fire, with flames sometimes shooting 30 feet high, was just east of, and adjacent to, Madison High School property. Hurdles on the school's rock fire seen in the foreground. Authorities confirmed that the fire was within the East Madison-Cloverleaf Fire Protection District, which is served by the Madison Volunteer Fire Department, but the department was not called to control the fire that belched dense black smoke visible from all parts of the city.

PONTON MAN, AGE 25, FACES TWO CHARGES

Ricky Parker, 25, of 4734 Lake Drive, Lot 12, Pontoon Beach, was charged Monday by Pontoon Beach Patrolman Mike Crouch with disorderly conduct and assault. It is alleged Parker and his wife were arguing and upon Crouch's arrival, Parker was asked to calm down which he denied and became unruly with Crouch. Enroute to the Pontoon Beach Police Department, Parker allegedly assaulted Crouch and threatened his life. Parker was released on $154 bond.

DAMAGE PARK CENTER

Two pellets penetrated a large window at the Harold Brown Recreation Center, Amos and Franklin avenues, it was reported at 20 p.m. Monday.

Auto overturns, driver is hurt

Jimmie D. Poe Jr., 19, of 2204 Edison Ave., sustained injuries when the car he was driving overturned on Nameoki Drive this week. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center by private auto.

Although official reports did not list any injuries for two passengers in the car, Larry D. Lindsey, 22, and John W. Lindsey, 21, both of 2100 Delmar Ave., the two men also were taken to SEMC by private vehicle.

According to reports, Poe was traveling east on Nameoki Drive from 29th Place when he lost control of the car on loose gravel, skidded about 40 yards and hit a drainage ditch in front of 2816 Nameoki Drive, he told officers.

At this point the auto overturned, but continued to slide east along the ditch, destroying a large section of chainlink fencing, two roadside mailboxes and several stone markers before hitting a raised driveway between 2816 and 2800 Nameoki Drive.

Just east of the driveway, Poe's auto struck a utility pole jointly used by Illinois Bell and South-Western Cable TV before coming to a halt.

HURT IN FAMILY DISPUTE

Rhonda Manson, 172 Viola Jones Homes, alleged during the weekend that a family member took her camera and keys and a fight ensued and she was struck on the head with a fist. A complaint was signed against the person involved.

ALLEGES ROCKS THROWN

Charles Taylor of Madison alleged at 9 p.m. Monday that, following an argument, a woman friend threw rocks at his car, breaking the windshield and a side window. The incident occurred in the 2800 block of Edwards Street, he said.

Council upholds 4 Plan Commission ruling

Members of the Granite City Council upheld four planning commission decisions Tuesday night, one of which will allow E.G. Steele Development Inc., to start construction approximately 12 multiple dwelling units on Cargill Road.

Everett Steele, who spoke on behalf of his development company, told council members that the buildings will either be duplexes or triplexes. "It is a low-density type of construction," said Steele. "We will be adding to the city limits on the eastern rim. I think it has many beneficial aspects to the city."

To begin the construction, the two and one-third acres had to first be annexed into the city and then zoned R-5 residential.

Alderman Woody Moad, chairman of the planning and zoning committee, expressed concern over the construction project. "When a piece of property is zoned R-5, we want to know what is going to be built on it," he said. "If you say you're going to build on it right away, that's okay. But if you're going to hold onto the property and sell it at a later date, we would have no way of controlling what will be built."

"If you can give us your word that you are going to build what you say you're going to build, I'll go along with it."

Steele said he had his assurance that the buildings will be according to plan. He said construction will begin later this summer.

Also approved at the meeting, was a petition from Ortilio Valencia of 1701 Bremen Ave., who was requesting that his property be annexed into the city.

Two other petitions that were tabled by the Plan Commission also were postponed by the council. The first is a request from Jimmie and Diana Melton, 3202 Maryville Road, for rezoning of their Parkside Food Shop from a C-3 neighborhood commercial zone to a C-3 general commercial zone. The rezoning would allow the Meltons to install two gasoline pumps on the store's parking lot.

The second petition deferred was from David Rith, who wishes to place a Hit-N-Run Store on a piece of property at 29th Street and Madison Ave. He is requesting a rezoning from R-3 single family residential to a C-3 central business district commercial zone.
